LEWIS-CLARK STATE VOLLEYBALL

The V Club is the official booster club of women's volleyball at Lewis-Clark State College. This organization has been created to directly support volleyball student-athletes with much needed scholarship assistance and general program needs. As a member you have the opportunity to impact these exceptional student-athletes off the court through interaction and mentorship after matches as well as at volleyball functions. Every member has the option to be as involved as they like. The contribution allows you to sponsor a particular student-athlete or you may contribute to the entire program through a general gift.

MEET THE COACH

JENNIFER GREENY

Jennifer Greeny, in just one year, turned the Lewis-Clark State College volleyball program around. Named head coach in the late spring of 2007, Greeny took the reins of a Warrior team that was supposedly in the "rebuilding process" and led it to one of its most successful seasons in program history.

Picked to finish 6th in the Frontier Conference in the preseason coaches' poll, Greeny's squad surpassed all expectations by winning both the Frontier Conference regular season and tournament titles, and then by winning the Region I tournament to earn the program's first berth to the NAIA national tournament since 1999. LCSC was the No. 9 seed at the 20-team national tournament.

From a team that had won only 21 matches in the previous three years before her arrival, the Warriors ended the 2007 season with a 26-8 record. For her efforts, Greeny earned both the Frontier and Region I Coach of the Year titles. She also had numerous players earn all-conference and all-region honors, including Anile Clemente, who was also named a 3rd team All-American.

A former WSU two-sport star, Greeny posted a remarkable 84-12 record in three years as volleyball coach at Pullman High School in Washington prior to being named the Warriors' coach in March of 2007. During her three years at Pullman, she finished with a .875 winning percentage.

Greeny, nee Stinson, was a standout volleyball player at WSU during 1995-99 and also played on the basketball team her senior season. She spent a year coaching in the Spokane area until taking a job as assistant volleyball coach at WSU in 2000 under then Cougar coach, Cindy Fredrick. Greeny spent 4 1/2 years on Fredrick's staff and then took over a Pullman High when Fredrick left the University of Iowa.

Greeny also excelled in the classroom where she was WSU's Athlete of the Year in 1998-99. She was a GTE/CoSIDA District VIII Academic All-American 1st team and 2nd team selection her final two years and a Pac-10 Conference All-Academic selection three times.

Greeny and her husband Burdette Greeny, Lewis-Clark State's assistant volleyball coach and a former pitcher at WSU and professionally in the Milwaukee Brewers organization, have a daughter Lauren, age four.
