General Description:

Art Under the Elms (AUE) began in 1984 as a celebration of the arts in north central Idaho and has become one of the largest outdoor festivals in the state. This art festival features 100 of the region's finest artists, along with regional entertainers on two stages. AUE is the signature event of the annual month-long Dogwood Festival of the Lewis-Clark Valley. For additional Dogwood Festival information please visit our website at www.lcsc.edu/dogwood.

Artist Fair:

Exquisitely hand-crafted fine art and fine crafts from artists in the Pacific Northwest and beyond make up the region's premiere event with over 100 booths of ceramics, photography, glassware, jewelry, paintings and more.

Artist Demonstrations:

Watch several fine artists as they demonstrate the creation of paintings, sculpture, iron works and more!

Family Fun Fair:

FREE activities at the Family Fun Tent include Ring Tosses, Bowling, Basket Ball Hoops and Spin Art. Join the Dogwood Fairy for tea and a variety of hands-on activities guaranteed to delight children of all ages. For a small fee, enjoy a Bounce House, Climbing Wall, Giant Slide, Face Painting and more.

Pepsi Food Court:

Our gourmet Food Court offers the area's finest culturally diverse cuisine. Berry Ka-Bobs, Gyros, Veggie Burgers, NY Style Sausages, Elephant Ears, Huckleberry Ice Cream and Specialty Drinks – just to whet your appetite!

SUB Amphitheater Entertainment:

Three full days of musical entertainment featuring Alternative, Country, Jazz, Oldies, Contemporary, Classical and Rock & Roll!

Art Under the Elms is a major fundraiser for LCSC Continuing Education & Community Events. Proceeds benefit the following programs: Kids' College, The Speakers Bureau at LCSC, Elderhostel, Silverthorne Performing Arts Series, Non-Credit Lifelong Learning & Personal Enrichment Classes, and the Dogwood Festival of the Lewis-Clark Valley.
