 - e. Serena Worobel, Interdisciplinary Studies, Representative.
- IV. Roundtable Discussion:
 - a. Introduction to ASLCSC Coeur d'Alene- current council members.
 - b. ASLCSC- President Laurie Racich & Vice President Cody Bloomsburg. President Laurie Racich stated that the retreat this year will be in August. Vice President Elect Cody Bloomsburg said that if the new council members had any questions on doing the book exchange to contact Senator Mike Bybee in Lewiston.
 - c. Student Services- Rocky Owens - 2006-07 council will determine next meeting date.
 - d. Wish List - The outgoing council members presented a list of where this year's council can continue the momentum.
 1. Technology request for a new printer and computer for the office at the Lounge.
 2. Participation in the Friends & Alumni Golf Tournament. – Saturday, May 13- ASLCSC Coeur d'Alene representatives placed on the 10th hole, take a picture of each team, go to a 1 hour photo shop and have copies made for each player to be distributed at the end of the tournament (contact John Haehl).
 3. Graduation Cap & Gown- Students in need. The office did buy one package that will be returned and that can be reused in the years to come. A suggestion for the students that want this scholarship is to have them write a shorts essay requesting why they need assistance.

4. Allow degree-seeking LC students taking few than 8 credits eligibility for ASLCSC Coeur d'Alene.
5. Student Tutoring (Possible partnership w/ NIC).
6. Simultaneous Spring Break w/ NIC (work w/ASNIC).
7. Increased presence w/faculty/administration
 - a. suggest Chair meet w/faculty throughout the year
 - b. e-mail program advisors a bulleted monthly update
 - c. continue w/Faculty Appreciation Dinner during the fall semester.
8. Voter Education
 - a. Suggestion: Send questions (specific to Coeur d'Alene) to Lewiston Presidential & Vice Presidential candidates prior to election to help educate Coeur d'Alene students about how candidates will incorporate Coeur d'Alene campus during the upcoming academic year.
9. Our "babies"
 - a. Legacy Committee: This was how we were able to provide furnishings for the Lounge.
 - b. Book Exchange: Probably want to have it in August for the Fall semester.
 - c. Office Organization: Keep it up for the next groups that come in.
 - d. Staff Appreciation along with Faculty Appreciation.

V. Adjournment- Meeting was adjourned at 1:34 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted by Wendy Hunter
