

News Release

Media Relations & Publications

TEL: 208-792-2200

FAX: 208-792-2201

Annual Grape & Grain is set for April 17 at Sage/Meacham Mills

The 19th annual Confluence Grape & Grain wine and beer tasting event, which is part of the Dogwood Festival, will be held on April 17 at 6-9 p.m. at the Sage Baking Company and Meacham Mills, located at 1303 Main St. in Lewiston.

The event, which serves as a fundraiser for both the Lewis-Clark State College Center for Arts & History and the LCSC Alumni Association, features several wines and beer selections from the Pacific Northwest. Art also will be on display at Sage as part of the Center's High School Art Exhibition, featuring art work of students from Lewiston, Clarkston and Asotin.

Tickets for the event are $20 if purchased in advanced or $25 at the door. Tickets can be purchased in advance at the LCSC Center for Arts & History office, located in the Sam Glenn Complex on the LCSC campus, Owl Southway Pharmacy, ... and Books too!, and Rosauers, all in Lewiston.

Persons attending must be at least 21 years of age as required by law.

Sponsors for the event include Potlatch #1 Federal Credit Union and Cannon's Building Materials Center.

The event has been held at the Center for Arts & History, but a fire on March 5 has closed the building.

Bert Sahlberg
Director of College Communications/Sports Information
Lewis-Clark State College
Lewiston, Idaho 83501
208-792-2200
208-792-2201 (fax)