

LCSC Library Services
Access to the Library and Its Resources

The LCSC Library complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act and seeks to provide access and reasonable accommodations to library resources for all that use the facility. Library staff will make every effort to assist all individuals to find information and obtain resources needed. LCSC students with documented disabilities who require extensive assistance should contact the Office of Disability Services, Reid Centennial Hall, Rm. 111. Individuals from the general public that have disabilities will be served to the extent that resources allow.