

Please use the information below to determine whether your materials fall under Fair Use Guidelines and can be placed on reserve.

If you have any questions, please contact Jennifer Cromer at 792-2829 or jjcromer@lcsc.edu

What kind of books can be put on reserve?

Book Type	Physical Reserve	E-Reserve	Copyright permission needed	Not Appropriate
Library book
Library reference book
Personal book
Government document
Textbook owned by the library or instructor
Complimentary copy of a textbook
Any book NOT owned by the library, including books borrowed from other libraries*

When can a book chapter/excerpt be put on reserve?

Chapter/Excerpt Information	Physical Reserve	E-Reserve	Copyright permission needed	Not Appropriate
One chapter from a book owned by the library or instructor
One chapter from a book NOT owned by the library or instructor*
Two or more chapters from any book
Excerpt of 10% or less of the book owned by the library or instructor

Excerpt of 10% or less of the book NOT owned by the library or instructor*
Excerpt of more than 10% of any book

What kind of articles can be put on reserve?

Article Information	Physical Reserve	E-Reserve	Copyright permission needed	Not Appropriate
One article from a journal issue owned by the library or instructor
One article from a journal issue NOT owned by the library or instructor
Two or more chapters from a single issue of a journal
Full text article from library's electronic databases

What other types of items can be put on reserve?

Item Type	Physical Reserve	E-Reserve	Copyright permission needed	Not Appropriate
Course pack purchased by the instructor
Music/sound recording excerpt, 10% or less of whole work, owned by the library
Music/sound recording excerpt, 10% or less of whole work, owned by the instructor
Music/sound recording excerpt, more than 10% of the whole work
Music/sound recording excerpt NOT owned by the library or instructor
Original copy of VHS or DVD owned by the library
Original copy of VHS or DVD owned by the instructor
Original copy of VHS or DVD NOT owned by the library or instructor*

VHS or DVDs recorded from television or otherwise obtained without permission
Student papers with written permission of the student author
Student papers without written permission of the student author
Commercially produced workbooks or instruction manuals with answer keys
Test files, lecture notes or solution files created by instructor
Links to websites that comply with copyright law		