LCSC Administration Communications-Dr. Andy Hanson
• Will be starting the Unit Action Planning processes. Sam has been delegated as a Student Representative in the process. Any improvements needed, send them through Sam.

Executive Communications

• President Carlson –
  o Tuesday October 1 – Picture Day! Wear Black Polos and meet in the ASLCSC office at 4:15pm o We had a Booth at the Multi-Cultural week involvement fair. Tim was the only one to show up. If you volunteer by raising your hand, you need to be there.
    ▪ Tyler – these are the type of things that can affect your stipends
  o Was driving under the Blue Bridge and saw some vandalism that said LC. If people want to see more LC representation around town, what about a mural somewhere downtown?
    ▪ Will need to talk with City Council – they meet 1st and 3rd Tuesdays.
  o Has decided to make the smokestack renovations and LC representation this year’s Legacy Project
  o There are many individual projects happening – if anyone needs any help, contact him.
• Vice-President Howlett-
  o Craft Fair Committee meeting next Tuesday, October 1, after Senate.
  o First Home Volleyball game is Thursday at 7pm with a BBQ at 6pm. Let’s go represent and cheer on our Warriors.
• Committees Director – Nothing at this time.
• Student Involvement Director Humpherys –
  o Created some brochures for Warrior Wednesday sponsorship o Ad space on Warrior Wednesday does not require sponsorship
• Media Relations Director Auker–
  o Getting more information on the ASLCSC Facebook Page.
    ▪ Students have been sharing pictures on the site. Email her if you want them posted to the site as well.

Judicial Communications

• Chief Justice Reynolds – everyone should have a copy of the revisions to the Election Code. We will be talking about it soon.
  o Neva has resigned therefore opening a spot for an Associate Justice. Let people know.

Committee Reports

• Chief Justice Reynolds – The Pride Committee met – each member is working on projects. He has been talking with Jeff Phelps, Controller, regarding signs in front of the buildings, banners, etc.
• Senator Jackson – Warrior Wednesday committee meeting after today’s meeting. Working on contacting a list of approved business for sponsorships.

Old Business –
ASLCSC Senate Meeting Minutes
September 24, 2013

- Senate Majority Leader Jackson – this is the space for follow up on previously mentioned ideas or items. If you want to bring something up for Old Business, email him and he will put it on the agenda.
  - Has been approached by students accusing ASLCSC for voting in the non-smoking policy.
    - Know your response. ASLCSC does not make policy. ASLCSC polled the students and presented the results to Administration. ASLCSC wrote a resolution in support of the initiative. ASLCSC does not make policy. Administration makes policy.
    - If people have specific questions or concerns, direct them to Sam at asbpresident@lcsc.edu.

New Business

- President Carlson – Role review during the Senate meeting
  - Senate’s Role – Bill discussion, agree, disagree and work toward resolution on issues at hand. Attempt to sway opinion in favor or against a subject.
  - Executive Role – Provide history or other angle of vision. Do not argue issues, or participate in active Bill discussion.
  - Judicial Role – Ensure the rules are being followed. Do not argue issues, or participate in active Bill discussion.

- Bill #13-F019 – 2013-2014 Election Code – Tenth Revision
  - Additional questions and discussion needed.
  - Senator Morehouse moved to Table this Bill until October 1. Senator Jackson seconded the motion. The Bill is Tabled until October 1.
  - Senate Majority Leader Jackson – There should be additional discussion on the revisions to the Election Code. Meeting Thursday after the Round Table for further Discussion.
    - VP for Student Affairs, Dr. Hanson will also be there

- Bill #13-F020 – April McKelway to Committees Director
  - Senator Morehouse moved to vote. Senator Playfair seconded the motion.
  - Bill is Passed.

Senate Information Reports

- Senator Weir – Has been working on a recycling program in the Residence Halls. Received support from Debbie and there will be Blue Recycling Bins in all the Residence Halls soon.
  - Senator Tichacek Clark has been doing a recycling program in Clark Hall. Get in touch with her to work out kinks.

- Senator Wilponen – would like to form a committee to review the current ASLCSC Constitution and ByLaws for updates or revisions.
  - Pres. Carlson - Tyler also have been looking at this. Welcomes

- Senator Jackson – has been helping distribute the Green Space surveys. Suggest all ASLCSC members fill out a survey as well
  - Everyone should participate in the Multicultural week events.
  - Senate Majority Leader Jackson – if you can be involved, do it. There is a ton to learn from these events and it is free.

- Senate Majority Leader Jackson –
  - Talked to the YWCA regarding the Bowl Painting. Is surprised that this has not come up yet. Fundraising for the YWCA.
Dates have not been set. Working on coordination at this point.

- Senator Bott moved to amend the Agenda to swear in April McKelway as Committees Director. Senator Wilponen seconded the motion.
  - Chief Justice Reynolds swears in April McKelway as Committees Director.
- Senate Majority Leader Jackson – idea of sponsoring a number of students to attend Bowling night at Orchards Lanes. Lots of discussion on how to select students. Need to write a Bill for an up to amount and work it out.
- Multiple Senators: Many other ways to reach students to get them involved: Facebook page, PowerPoint slide to the SUB info desk for the reader boards, SGC reader boards, KLCZ, Pathfinder, etc.
  - President Carlson - Lots of ideas to do things, but we need people to DO it. So if you have an idea, make it happen. Get with Media Relations.

Audience Time

- Jody - Housekeeping
  - Printers – please check and fill the paper trays when you are finished.
    - Please pick up your printed items. Not to be placed on the counter.
  - Printer toner cartridges –
    - Please indicate that the boxes are empty when you replace a toner cartridge so a new cartridge can be ordered.
- Senate Majority Leader Jackson – We can put a bin on the counter for prints that don’t get picked up. We have a great office and we need to keep it clean.
- Chief Justice Reynolds – electronic devices in meetings. Please turn them off, or put them away. Have respect for those around.
- Dr. Andy Hanson –
  - LC Foundation is concerned that students may be falling short of funds to graduate. There is not a student benevolence fund at LCSC – a fund to cover regalia, or books or whatever is needed to help a student finish.
  - Andy’s office would monitor and distribute as needed.
  - Suggested if we know of someone in need, refer them to Andy’s office.

Adjournment – Senator Jackson moved to adjourn. Senator Weir seconded the motion.
Meeting adjourned at 5:32 pm.
Respectfully Submitted by: Jody Clausen
