Welcome Back!
Connecting learning to your life in the LCSC Division of Education!

Welcome back to school. I hope that your summer was a fun and restful one. Please keep your eye out for upcoming issues of “The ExpEDition,” the official newsletter of the LCSC Division of Education. Here you will find up-to-date information about your program and important due dates needed to help you on the path to success. I am happy that you have chosen to be a member of the Education, Health, and/or Kinesiology programs! We have great faculty and staff committed to your educational success. If you’re in Spalding Hall, please stop by and say “Hi!” I look forward to meeting some of you for the first time or reconnecting with others after a busy summer. Have a great semester!

Heather Van Mullem, PhD, Education Division Chair

Meet Our New Faculty in Kinesiology

Christa Davis, Assistant Professor, Health & Kinesiology

Christa Davis, PhD, joins us from The University of Idaho. Dr. Davis has a background in Athletic Training, Dance, and Pedagogy. She will teach classes in Health and Kinesiology and work closely with students preparing to become Health and Physical Education teachers. After completing her dissertation, Christa took a group of students to Los Angeles, CA this summer to work with Thomas Johnson (aka Tommy the Clown), the creator of Krump. Welcome Dr. Davis! We’re excited you’re joining the Education Division.

Jessica Savage, Instructor, Health & Kinesiology

Jessica Savage, MS, joins us from Eastern Washington University. Jessica has a background in exercise science and fitness. A certified Strength & Conditioning Specialist, Body Pump, and Spinning Instructor, Jessica will teach classes in Health and Kinesiology and work closely with students preparing to enter into the health and fitness industry. Welcome Jessica! We’re excited you’re joining the Education Division.

Important Reminders

Teacher Education Students:

Teacher Education students need to have all required PRAXIS tests passed before they can begin student teaching.

Please note that applications for Spring acceptance into the Teacher Education program are due by August 30, 2013. Please be sure that your Statement of Release has been submitted to the Education Division office, in SPH 103.

Kinesiology Students:

Please discuss possible internship sites with your advisor to ensure that the site can fulfill the needed requirements to successfully complete your internship.
