the ExpEdition

Faculty Spotlight

Dr. Amy Page is the Coordinator of the Secondary Education Teacher Preparation Program in the Education and Kinesiology Division.

In addition to teaching in the areas of Math Education and Classroom Management, Dr. Page serves as the Director of the Idaho Region II Mathematics Center at LCSC.

Division Name Change

The name of the Lewis-Clark State College’s Division of Education will be officially changed to Education and Kinesiology in Spring 2014. The name change was requested by division faculty to reflect the growing number of Kinesiology majors. During academic year 2012-2013, Kinesiology majors represented 38% of the total students within the division.

Save the Date!

Final Exams
Finals Week
December 16-19
Final Grades Posted
December 23

Upcoming Dates
Spring Semester
First Day of Classes
January 21

Last day to pay without late fees and register/add/drop online
January 27
Success in the Classroom, Success on the Court

Sam Atkin, Kinesiology

Congratulations to Sam Atkin (Kinesiology Major) for winning the Frontier Conference Men’s Cross Country title and taking second place at the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) National Cross Country Championships!

Brittany Niebergall, Elementary Education

Congratulations to Brittany Niebergall (Elementary Education major) for being named the Frontier Conference Women’s Basketball Player of the Week twice already this season!

Kinesiology Students Attend Fall Academic Conferences

Kinesiology students and faculty attended two academic conferences, Idaho Association of Health, Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance (IAHPERD) & Western Society of Kinesiology and Wellness (WSKW), during the fall semester.

LCSC Teacher Education Program Completes Accreditation Visit

The LCSC Teacher Education Program successfully completed its re-accreditation process with both the Idaho State Professional Standards Commission and the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education during the fall semester.