Welcome Back!

Fall Semester 2014

Welcome to the start of the 2014 fall semester! Several times throughout the academic year, a copy of “The ExpEDition” will arrive in your email inbox to provide you with important dates to consider and information about the exciting things that are happening in the Education & Kinesiology Division at Lewis-Clark State College. Please don’t hesitate to stop by the division office in Spalding Hall, Room 103 or give us a call at 208-792-2260 if you need assistance. Our staff is here to help you on your path to success at LCSC.

Heather Van Mullem, PhD, Division Chair

FALL 2014

Important Dates

October 24
• Mid-term grades posted to WarriorWeb

November 6
• Last day to drop from classes or withdraw from the College

November 10
• Advance registration for Spring semester

December 1
• Last day to apply for spring graduation

December 15-18
• Finals Week

Education & Kinesiology Division

Got Questions? Contact the Education & Kinesiology Division Office

Spalding Hall, Room 103
208-792-2260
education@lcmail.lcsc.edu
www.lcsc.edu/education
Partnerships with the Local Schools

Dr. Gary Mayton, Professor in Teacher Education, continues his work with principals, teachers, and support staff this fall in the Lewiston and Kendrick Joint School Districts, respectively, as they explore the integration of technology in teaching and learning.

Secondary Education Health and PE Student Named to Prestigious Position

Secondary Education Health and Physical Education student Cole Robinson has been named Idaho’s Student Representative to the Society of Health and Physical Educators (SHAPE) professional organization. As Idaho’s student representative, Mr. Robinson will attend and participate in the 2015 annual convention in Seattle, WA.

Champions in the Classroom and on the Track

Chelsey Leighton (Elementary Education) won the 2014 NAIA Women’s Marathon race at the NAIA Outdoor Track & Field National Championships in Gulf Shores, AL. Sam Atkin (Sport Administration) is the 2014 Men’s 5,000 Meters NAIA Outdoor National Champion.

Faculty Spotlight: Dr. Cliff Matousek

Dr. Cliff Matousek is a professor in the Elementary Education Teacher Preparation Program. His areas of expertise include Math and Science Education and classroom management at the elementary level. He teaches “Principles of Education” and “Math Methods K-8” and serves as a faculty mentor and supervisor to Elementary Education candidates during their student-teaching internship in the schools. He joined the division in August 2005.