FINANCIAL AID TERMS

COA: Cost of Attendance
The total estimated amount it will cost to attend school. This annual figure includes tuition and fees, housing (on and off-campus), books, and transportation.

DIRECT COSTS
These are costs paid directly to LCSC. These may include tuition and fees and on-campus room and board. These costs that will appear on your Student Account Statement in which you are responsible for paying.

EFC: Expected Family Contribution
The amount the family is expected to contribute to the education of the student. This figure is determined by FAFSA, using a congressionally established formula.

FASFA: Free Application for Federal Student Aid
This form allows you to apply for federal aid programs

INDIRECT COSTS
These are costs incurred by you while you attend LCSC. These may include books & supplies, transportation, personal expenses, off-campus room and board and any other miscellaneous expenses. The amounts of these costs will differ for each student.

MPN: Master Promissory Note
A legally binding document that a borrower signs to get a loan.

Need: Cost of Attendance (COA) & Expected Family Contribution (EFC)
Student need is computed by subtracting the EFC from the COA. This is how we determine your eligibility for need-based financial aid.

SAR: Student Aid Report
A summary of your FAFSA information.
