opportunities to study abroad

has your student thought about a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to visit and learn in a foreign country for a semester? lcsc has a study away program where qualified students can spend a semester in a different country.

students will have an opportunity to learn more about the program at a study away information session this thursday, march 3, at noon-1 p.m. in room 16 of reid centennial hall. students will learn about the opportunities available to them and the possible financial help that is available.

to be eligible, a student must be fully admitted and degree-seeking, have at least a 2.75 gpa (or higher for some programs), have at least 30 semester credits on their transcript and attended lc full-time for one semester immediately prior to the term they go abroad.

lcsc now has a student health 101 e-magazine for students. the e-edition comes out every month and can be accessed at: http://readsh101.com/lcsc.html besides valuable health information, students can also be entered into monthly drawings for at least $1,000.
