Summary of Major Changes incorporated in this revision to the policy: Added Provost to the Point of Contact and Military and Veteran Honor Cords.

1. Commencement is a formal academic event. Graduates must be properly attired in approved academic regalia in order to participate in commencement activities.
 - A. Academic regalia: Commonly called cap and gown, academic regalia includes a mortarboard (cap), black gown, and tassel. The stole is included for baccalaureate degree candidates.
 - B. Tassel: The tassel is worn on the right side of the mortarboard (cap) prior to the degree being conferred.
 - C. Honor cords, worn around the neck and hanging down the front of the gown, identify students who are graduating with honors. The cords are provided by Lewis-Clark State College and are worn on this one occasion only. Only the cords and stoles listed below are appropriate for commencement at Lewis-Clark State College.
 - D. Approved honors cords/stoles/ tassels:
 - (1) President's honors (blue /white; Professional-Technical honors, 3.75 GPA)
 - (2) Cum Laude (silver; with distinction, 3.70 GPA)
 - (3) Magna Cum Laude (gold; with great distinction, 3.8 GPA)
 - (4) Summa Cum Laude (silver & gold; with highest distinction, 3.9 GPA)
 - (5) College-sanctioned honor societies and organizations:
 - a. Teacher Education: Kappa Delta Pi Honor Society recognizes teacher candidates who have earned a grade point average of 3.5 or higher,
