

LEWIS-CLARK STATE COLLEGE

Health Professions Day 2019

Session Descriptions

Dentist/Dental Hygienist: This panel will introduce you to the fields of dentistry and dental hygiene, the academic preparation to become a dentist or dental hygienist, and provide insights into the profession from highly experienced professionals.

Physical Therapist/Occupational Therapist: This panel will introduce you to the fields of physical therapy and occupational therapy, the academic preparation to become a physical or occupational therapist, and provide insight into the professions from highly experienced professionals.

Nurse Practitioner/Certified Registered Nurse Assistant/Physician's Assistant/Physician: This panel will introduce you to the fields of advanced practice nursing and medicine, the academic preparation to become an advanced practice nurse, a physician assistant, or a physician, and provide insight into the professions from highly experienced professionals.

Registered Nurse/Radiography: This panel will introduce you to the fields of nursing and radiography, the academic preparation to become a registered nurse or registered radiographic technologist, and provide insight into the professions from highly experienced professionals.

Veterinarian/Veterinary Technician/Veterinary Student: This panel will introduce you to the field of veterinary medicine and include a discussion on academic preparation and job opportunities for veterinarians and veterinary technicians.

Optometrist/Podiatrist: This panel will introduce you to the fields of optometry and podiatry, the academic preparation to become an optometrist or podiatrist, and provide insight into the professions from highly experienced professionals.

Pharmacist: This panel will introduce you to the fields of pharmacy, the academic preparation to become a pharmacist, and provide insight into the profession from a highly experienced professional.

Strength and Conditioning/Exercise Science/Athletic Training: The panel will introduce you to the fields of strength and conditioning, exercise science, and athletic training, the academic preparation to become a certified strength and conditioning coach, exercise scientist, and athletic trainer, and provide insight into the profession from highly experienced professionals.