

Blood Center Foundation of the Inland Northwest Phlebotomy Scholarship

Eligibility Requirements:

The applicant must intend to enroll in the Lewis-Clark State College Phlebotomy course and plan to work in the field of Phlebotomy. Scholarship recipients will be required to observe at an Inland Northwest Blood Center location for one day to learn about blood banking and transfusion medicine.

Awards:

Awards may be distributed in part or in full to one or more students each term. Funds will be sent directly to LCSC.

Applications for fall 2019 are due on July 26, 2019. Awards will be made by August 9, 2019. Students must register in the class that begins August 21, 2019.

Application for spring 2020 are due on January 03, 2020. Awards will be made by January 17, 2020. Students must register in the class that begins February 5, 2020.

Name: _____
 Last First Middle

Email: _____

Permanent Address/Mailing Address: _____

City State Zip Telephone

Are you applying for fall 2019 for spring 2020? Fall Spring

Please provide a personal statement about yourself and why you are interested in a career in Phlebotomy.

Please describe your financial need for this scholarship.

Please list any awards or honors that you have received.

Briefly describe any community service or volunteer work that you have chosen to participate in over the past two years.

Please provide any additional information that would be beneficial for us to know when reviewing your application.

After you complete the Phlebotomy training, what are your future plans?

Applications may be submitted online, mailed to LCSC Workforce Training, 500 8th Avenue, Lewiston, ID 83501 or delivered in person to LCSC Workforce Training, Allied Health, 1920 3rd Avenue North, Lewiston, ID 83501.

Date received _____