Note below the numbers of credits that LCSC will accept as transfer credits. Pay attention to whether or not CORE-ST or CORE-ID appears on the evaluation as these indicate core completion. Lastly, remedial credits (courses numbered under 100) do not count toward your graduation total.

. This Degree Audit is for advising and student use only. Although efforts have been made to ensure the accuracy of this audit, STUDENTS ARE RESPONSIBLE for the completion of graduation requirements, which are not considered official until the Registrar's Office has awarded a degree or certificate.

. The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, prohibits the release of this audit or disclosure of its contents without the written consent of the student.

. Total transfer credits accepted from all 2-year colleges combined is limited to 70. Total transfer credits accepted from North Idaho College is limited to 85. Total transfer credits accepted from all colleges combined is limited to 96.

. CORE-ST in the other courses section means upper and lower core complete. Disregard missing requirements in the core. CORE-ID in the other courses section means lower core complete. Disregard missing requirements in the lower core. Upper division core 350/35 1 is still required.

. Courses marked *RI are developmental and are ruled ineligible for graduation. Subtract *RI earned credit from Totals.

If this Degree Audit is being attached to your graduation application, obtain required signatures below. Secondary Education and Interdisciplinary majors require 2 advisor signatures.

*X Extra - It is not necessary to complete this component of the program. A sufficient number of other components have been completed

Troubleshooting: 'No report was generated' means that you do not have a catalog year assigned. To assign a catalog year, you must submit a PIF to the Registrar's Office. 'No requirements associated with the program . . .' means that the coding has not been completed for that particular program. Catalog years are dated back to 2002-03.
