COMMUNITY LIVING

Community Living

When you move into the residence halls at Lewis-Clark State College, you choose to become part of a community—a community of individuals who, by virtue of their common educational goals, have come together to share a wide variety of experiences.

Living in a residence hall is a unique experience which provides an opportunity to meet new people and explore new ideas and ways of relating to others. Residence hall living is a vital part of the educational process in which students are encouraged to assume individual and group responsibility. You will have an opportunity to develop close friendships, enjoy eating together in the dining area, and assist in planning activities for your floor or hall.

The residential community exists within the larger structure of the College, city, and of course, society. Residents remain subject to College policy and civil and state laws. Within these parameters there exists considerable opportunity for self-direction and experience. Your experience is limited only by the choices that you make and by how you balance the rights that you have as a resident with the responsibilities that you have to the other members of the community.

At Lewis-Clark State College, students come from a wide variety of backgrounds and are used to many different styles of living. You may meet people who have had experiences that are unfamiliar to you. It will be essential that you have an open, interested, tolerant, considerate, and compromising attitude to those you come in contact with. We hope that you will share the belief that our diverse population is a wonderfully enriching aspect of the residential life experience.

Many college students living in the residence halls make two important discoveries. First, that most have more individual freedom than previously experienced; and second, that the intense academic demands and confined residential living arrangement require greater self-control and individual discipline than ever before.

Residents' Rights and Responsibilities

Living in a residential community brings with it certain responsibilities. The individual and members of the community have specific rights as well as specific responsibilities. You have the right to live in an environment in which you can achieve your academic goals and be treated in a civil and respectful manner by all members of the community. You, in turn, will be asked to treat other residents with courtesy and consideration, to do your part to promote a safe and secure residential community, and to abide by the policies and regulations which are designed to support an academic environment in the residence halls.

The following is a listing of your "rights", what you are entitled to as a student living in LCSC's residence halls, and your "responsibilities", what is expected of you as a member of the residence hall community.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT to a safe and secure residence hall space;

YOU HAVE THE RESPONSIBILITY to keep your room door and hall doors locked and not prop them open or allow in strangers.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT to a reasonably peaceful and quiet space in which you can study;

YOU HAVE THE RESPONSIBILITY to observe quiet hours, keep your stereo and your voice at a reasonable volume in your living group, and to remind others that you expect the same of them.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT to privacy and the proportionate use of your room, both in terms of space and time and the right to be free of unwanted guests in your room;

YOU HAVE THE RESPONSIBILITY to let your roommate know of your wishes and preferences for hours of sleep, study and visitation, and to work through any differences you may have in a peaceful manner within the guidelines established in the Residence Hall Handbook.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT to choose your means of recreation and relaxation;

YOU HAVE THE RESPONSIBILITY to know and abide by the laws of the State of Idaho, including those that pertain to alcoholic beverages and illegal drugs. You have the responsibility to follow policies and regulations established to support the educational purposes of the College and to sustain a safe and comfortable living environment in the residence halls.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT to confront another's behavior which infringes on your rights;

YOU HAVE THE RESPONSIBILITY to examine your own behavior when confronted by another and work toward resolving conflicts.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT to the assistance of your RA, RHD or other Residence

Life or College staff when you need help with a problem;

YOU HAVE THE RESPONSIBILITY to notify a staff person of your problem in a timely manner and to cooperate with them as they work with you to solve your problem.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT to know what's OK and NOT OK in the residence halls;

YOU HAVE THE RESPONSIBILITY to read the information provided for you by the Office of Residence Life , especially your housing contract and the Residence Hall Handbook.

These are some of your "rights" and "responsibilities" - think about them; talk about them; and make them a part of what you do during your stay here.

To a significant extent, your success will depend on your ability to understand the balance between rights and responsibilities. The College staff does not assume the role of campus parent and you will seldom be told what to do or what not do with regard to your personal behavior. The obvious exception, as with society at large, is when individual behavior begins to disrupt the legitimate pursuits of others within the residence hall community.

As a resident of LCSC's residence halls, you possess specific individual rights which your roommate and those living around you must respect. These rights carry with them a reciprocal responsibility on your part to ensure that these same rights exist for your roommate, floormates, and other residents.

The Residence Life Staff does not, nor can it, guarantee you will attain each of these rights at all times. You share the responsibility. You can help ensure that these rights will be honored through thoughtful discussion and open communication with roommates, floormates, and other residents.

RESIDENCE LIFE AND YOU

The Department of Residence Life is excited that you have chosen to live on campus and include us as part of your college experience. We are determined to make your stay with us an enjoyable and memorable time. Welcome!

RESIDENT ASSISTANT

Your Resident Assistant (RA) is a student and a primary resource person for students living in campus housing. Some of the responsibilities of an RA include planning floor activities, providing individual advisement and counseling, assisting in general management of the hall, serving as a role model to residents, explaining housing and College policies and regulations, and confronting those who violate these policies and regulations.

RESIDENCE HALL DIRECTOR

Your Residence Hall Director (RHD) will also be an important resource. The RHDs have overall responsibility for their assigned living group. The RHD is responsible for the supervision of all hall staff and the enforcement of regulations and policies.

Feel free to talk to your RHD about any personal or school problem as well as ideas or suggestions to improve the residential community. They will be happy to listen to and assist you.

STAFF ON DUTY

Each weekday as well as each weekend throughout the semester, RAs will be "on duty." Duty schedules are posted throughout the halls. If any problem arises, please feel free to contact the staff member on duty.

COOPERATION WITH COLLEGE OFFICIALS

Your residence hall staff are College officials. Residents must immediately comply with lawful orders from any College official. Verbal and/or physical abuse directed toward any College staff member will not be tolerated and may subject the student(s) responsible to disciplinary action.

IDENTIFICATION

For the safety and welfare of all students and to protect the property of the residence halls, it is strongly suggested to have your College ID in your possession at all times. Proof of identity may be requested of any person in the residence halls by members of the housing staff. Failure to identify yourself to a College staff member upon request will be viewed negatively and may result in charges being brought against you.

DEPARTMENT OF RESIDENCE LIFE

The Department of Residence Life is located in the lobby of Clark Hall. Several services are provided to students at the office. You may purchase stamps, change currency, pick-up packages, attain a lock-out key, check out equipment, etc. Office hours are posted each semester. Please call 792-2053 for information or questions regarding Residence Life.

A ROOMMATE'S BILL OF RIGHTS

This document is intended to serve as a suggested format for an agreement between roommates to ensure that each individual's rights are respected. Learning to accept each other's differences without infringing on one another's freedom is a valuable part of your total education. Your level of enjoyment and satisfaction from residence hall living will depend to a large extent on the thoughtful consideration you demonstrate as roommates. Roommates should mutually determine the decisions and the stipulations for the behavioral contract and endorse it. Your residence hall staff is available if additional assistance or mediation is needed.

The basic rights of a roommate include:

The right to study free from undue interference (noise, stereo, guests, etc.) in one's room.

The right to sleep without undue disturbance from noise, guests, roommates, etc.

The right to expect that roommates will respect each others' personal belongings.

The right to a clean environment in which to live.

The right to free access to one's room and facilities without pressure from roommates.

The right to personal privacy.

The right to host guests at agreed upon times and with the expectation that guests are to respect the rights of the host's roommate(s) and other hall residents.

The right to expect that the roommate will not violate College and residence hall policies in the room.

The right to expect that any and all disagreements will be discussed in an atmosphere of openness and mutual respect and that it is acceptable, when any roommate feels it is necessary, to involve a residence hall staff member in such a discussion.

The right to be free from harassment and discrimination.

JUDICIAL PROCESS

JUDICIAL PROCESS

As a student in the residence halls at Lewis-Clark State College, you are responsible for your own actions. As we strive to maintain an educational environment conducive to academic success, acceptable and unacceptable behaviors have been clearly defined. Not following the outlined responsibilities and policies may result in judicial action.

RESIDENCE HALL CONDUCT PROCEDURES

When an apparent violation of College or residence hall policy occurs, an incident report is filed. Based on this report, the Director may file specific charges against the suspected student(s) involved. Residents charged with infractions of policy will have a hearing. Alleged violations of College and residence hall policy may result in fines, community service hours, probationary status, removal from housing, suspension or expulsion from the College.

THE JUDICIAL PROCESS

Residence hall students are responsible for their actions, and living in a densely populated environment requires maturity and good judgement. In order to maintain a positive educational environment, there are conditions that are part of your residence hall contract which govern acceptable and unacceptable behavior. These conditions allow Residence Life staff to take action if you don't fulfill your part of the contract. The residence hall staff will confront you if your actions appear contrary to policy or community standards. Our hope is that by calling attention to your behavior and its consequences, better judgment will be exercised, and future problems can be avoided.

INCIDENT REPORTS AND DOCUMENTATION

Incident reports are the primary means of communicating what goes on in the residence halls. The reports are used by the Residence Life staff as an informational and historical record of events, as well as a tool for follow-up investigations or disciplinary actions. Incident reports are not limited to violations of College and residence hall policy, but may be purely informational in nature. Students will be offered the opportunity to read any report that involves them and given the opportunity to sign that report. Signing an incident report lets staff know that the resident has read the report. Once an incident report has been filed, the conduct officer will determine if there may have been a violation of College or Residence Hall Policy.

DUE PROCESS

Once it has been determined that a hearing is necessary, the student(s) involved will be notified to meet with the Director of Residence Life or designee. At this meeting, the hearing party(ies) will discuss whether a violation has occurred, determine the degree to which the student was involved, and assign a sanction if appropriate.

SANCTIONS

The Hearing Officer will use appropriate and fair sanctions based upon the State Board of Education's policy, College Policy and Residence Hall Policy. These sanctions include, but are not limited to:

Residence Hall Probation: A documented statement that further misconduct may result in a recommendation that the student be removed from the floor, hall, or house and/or be subjected to other disciplinary action.

Transfer to another Floor within the Hall or Room within the House: Moving the resident from his/her floor or room to another floor or room within the hall or house.

Eviction: Administrative action taken to remove a student from the residence hall system. The student is no longer permitted to reside in any College-owned residence hall. Eviction may occur within 48 hours of official notification.

Restitution: The student is required to make payment to the College or to the persons, groups, or organizations for damages which he/she is responsible. This is true whether the action was intentional or an accident.

Community Service: Specified number of hours that a student must complete. The amount of time and place is determined by the Hearing Officer. Students may complete hours assisting their RA, custodial staff or other campus departments.

Educational Sanctions: A student may be required to complete creative or educational sanctions. These have included research papers, counseling, etc.

Counseling and/or Alcohol/Drug Intake: A student may be referred to these support services as a way to assist the student in more effective management of personal crisis and alcohol/drug misuse.

Alcohol Information School: This is used for any student who violates the alcohol policy. The student must pay a $40 registration fee to attend the class.

APPEALS

Every student is entitled to appeal a decision from the Hearing Officer. Any sanction imposed by the Director or designee remains active until the appeal process is complete. All appeals must be submitted in writing to the Vice-President for Student Affairs and must be submitted within three (3) school days of receiving the decision. Students may appeal cases based on these criteria:

1. Due process was denied the student
2. Additional evidence or information has been found which might affect the outcome of the case.

FAILURE TO APPEAR

A student who fails to appear for a conduct meeting or appeal after receiving notice is not excused from pending action. The conduct meeting will take place as scheduled, evidence will be reviewed, and a decision will be made. The student will be informed of that decision in writing.

A student who voluntarily withdraws from the residence halls or College prior to the completion of proceedings is not excused from pending action.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES AND POLICIES

THE FOUR COMPELLING COMMUNITY INTERESTS

THE FOUR COMPELLING COMMUNITY INTERESTS

Defining and explaining residence hall policy can be complicated. In the past, when a resident requested an explanation for a reason for a rule, the response could have been something like: "Because I say so, and this is the way we do it here." The response was usually arbitrary and known as rules for rules' sake. The Residence Life staff at LCSC expects its students to hear a much different response.

These compelling community interests are:

1. Health and Safety
2. Property loss or damage
3. Serious disruption of the educational living environment
4. Legitimate educational purpose

We do not attempt to cover every conceivable offense with a rule, and will, when a resident violates the general rule of "conduct not keeping with the standards of the College," hold the student accountable for his or her actions. It should be understood that the residents of each room in the residence halls are responsible for addressing issues when they are aware of violations of standards in their community.

Gathercoal, Forrest, Judicious Leadership for Residence Hall Living, 1991.

COMPELLING COMMUNITY INTEREST: ISSUES OF HEALTH & SAFETY

The College has the responsibility to establish policies with regards to the Health and Safety of students. Policies and procedures have been developed to protect students against incidents or behavior that may jeopardize the physical, mental, and emotional health and/or safety of either the group or individual.

SAFETY AND SECURITY

Living group security is a shared responsibility between residents and College staff members. We care about your comfort and safety in the residence halls and on campus, so we encourage you to take all reasonable steps to insure your personal safety and security.

The campus is not a crime-free haven. Common sense and crime prevention strategies can help insure your safety and security. Work together with your community members and Residence Life Staff to create a "floor watch" awareness, thereby protecting your floor from people who don't belong there. Ask strangers visiting your floor who they are visiting. If you are suspicious or uncomfortable with their presence, or you witness them doing things that are questionable, contact your RA, RHD or Security. (Remember, you will be asked to describe them).

PUBLIC SAFETY

You are expected to obey local, state and federal laws. City, county, state and federal law enforcement officials have jurisdiction on campus.

Students who jeopardize the safety or security of other residents by propping or otherwise disabling exterior doors, or letting unauthorized individuals into the building (intentionally or carelessly) will face disciplinary action. Students who endanger the health and safety of themselves or other residents will face disciplinary consequences in accordance with due process.

PERSONAL SAFETY

For your own protection, it is recommended you keep your room door locked at all times. Carry your keys with you. When walking across campus at night, always walk with a "buddy." Report any intruders or suspected unescorted guests to a staff member or Security.

CANDLES/INCENSE

Candles, oil lamps, incense or other items with an open flame are not permitted in any College Residence Hall.

EMERGENCY AND SAFETY EQUIPMENT

Tampering, damaging, or inhibiting the use of emergency/safety equipment, including exterior residence hall doors, is prohibited. Residents may not use emergency equipment for any purpose other than emergency use. Residents involved in such activities will be subject to disciplinary action and may be removed from College housing. This policy includes, but is not limited to, fire extinguishers, heat and smoke detectors, exit lights or panels, or fire alarm pull stations.

ESCORT

For safety and security purposes, guests in the residence halls must be escorted at all times by a resident of that building. A guest is defined as any visitor who does not live in the hall in which they are visiting. The following guidelines apply to the escort policy:

- You must escort your guest into and out of the building.
- You must remain with your guest at all times while in rooms, public areas, TV lounges, laundry rooms, hallways or stairwells.
- Guests left unattended or unescorted may be asked to leave the building.
- You are responsible for the conduct of your guests.
- Never agree to escort a person you do not know personally.
- This includes opening the door to allow unknown visitors to enter your hall.

EXTERIOR DOORS

The exterior doors are locked 24 hours a day in all residence halls.

FIRE ALARMS

Each building is equipped with a fire alarm for your protection and students should not tamper with them. If a fire alarm sounds you should:

1. Put on shoes and a coat quickly.
2. Take a towel with you to prevent smoke inhalation.
3. Close your room door and window.
4. Walk briskly through the exit in your area and continue outside until you are away from the building.
5. DO NOT re-enter the building until you have been directed by a residence hall staff member or the fire department.

Residence Hall Staff are partially responsible to help with the evacuation of the hall. If you fail to evacuate the hall after the alarm sounds, you will be documented for violating residence hall policy.

Tampering with any fire alarm equipment is a violation of state law and could jeopardize the safety of all residents of the hall. Possible sanctions for persons who violate fire alarm policy may include removal from housing and cancellation of your contract, suspension from the College, and/or criminal prosecution. The individual(s) will also pay for any charges or damages related to the tampering of equipment.

FIRE DRILLS

Each hall will conduct a fire drill every semester. These drills are conducted to familiarize residents to the sound of the alarm, emergency exits, and the procedure for evacuating the building. Your participation in these drills is required. Persons who refuse to evacuate the building are subject to disciplinary action and possible fines.

FIREWORKS/EXPLOSIVES/CHEMICALS

Dangerous and/or highly corrosive chemicals and all types of explosives are not allowed in the residence halls. This includes all types of fireworks. It is a violation for anyone to possess, store, sell, use or explode any type of firework. Violators may be subject to fines and imprisonment.

Due to the physical danger to residents and the possibility of fire, any prank or activity involving fireworks, flammable material, liquids, explosives, dangerous chemicals and noxious or noisome materials/objects will not be tolerated on LCSC grounds and/or any residence hall. Activities involving the use of fireworks/explosives/chemicals, may result in severe sanctions issued by the Department of Residence Life as well as prosecution under applicable criminal codes. All chemicals/explosives/fireworks found in any residence hall room are subject to immediate seizure by housing staff.

GUESTS

Guests are defined as any individual who are not contracted residents of the specific room or building in question. Each guest must have a host and/or be escorted while in the building. The host will be responsible for the behavior of his or her guest(s). Guests are expected to comply with all state and college regulations and policies. Guests of residents may be asked to leave if they are violating policies, damaging property, or show the potential to cause harm to themselves or others.

Only people assigned to a room may reside in that room. Overnight guests are permitted only with the permission of the roommates(s). Residents are permitted ten (10) nights per semester to host overnight guests. Overnight guests may stay no more than two (2) consecutive nights. Students are to notify their Resident Assistant or Hall Director 24 hours prior to the guest's arrival.

LAMPS

In order to preserve the safety of residents and their belongings, torch-style halogen lamps are not allowed in residence hall rooms. They have been found to operate at very high temperatures and thus are a fire hazard.

SECURITY

The College employs uniformed campus security personnel. They handle traffic control, parking violations, campus safety inspections, building security, investigative work, college policy enforcement and documentation of violations of college or state law. Thefts and other crimes should be reported to campus security immediately. (792-2226 - office hours & 792-2815 nights & weekends)

TOBACCO USE

Smoking is not permitted inside any of the residence halls. Chewing tobacco on walls, carpet or in water fountains will be considered damage and will be charged to residents accordingly.

SOLICITATION

The College does not allow door-to-door or use of common areas for solicitation of funds, products, or services in the residence halls. Any solicitors should be reported to residence hall staff immediately. Residents are not permitted to run private businesses from their campus residence.

SPORTS ACTIVITIES

Residents may not engage in any sports or sport-related activities within the residence hall rooms, lounges, hallways, stairwells, or other public areas. Playing sports in a confined area can lead to injury and/or damage to private or College property. In addition, bicycles, skateboards and roller blades are not to be ridden or worn in the halls.

WINDOWS

To prevent personal injuries and property damage, throwing anything from residence hall windows is prohibited. Students responsible for throwing objects from residence halls will be subject to immediate disciplinary action and possible eviction from the building. Students may not remove screens from their windows.

WEAPONS/FIREARMS

Students may NOT bring any firearms, guns, ammunition, or any other weapons which may be hazardous to the health or safety of residents into the halls. This includes, but is not limited to steel-tipped darts, pellet or BB guns, paint guns, sling shots, arrows, axes, machetes, num-chucks, throwing stars and knives. Hazardous chemicals or flammable liquids are also prohibited. These items will be confiscated by residence hall staff. All legal firearms (and ammunition) , bow and arrows, and martial arts weapons owned by residents are to be stored with LCSC Security. Students may check out their weapons from LCSC Security with 24 hour notice. A picture identification is required when you come to pick up your weapons.

COMPELLING COMMUNITY INTEREST: PROPERTY, PROPERTY LOSS & DAMAGE

While the campus has a relatively low crime incidence, it is important to remember that no community can be totally risk free from incidents that cause property loss and damage. Care and protection of both community and personal property is a shared responsibility of all its members.

ABANDONED PROPERTY

Lewis-Clark State College and the Office of Residence Life are not responsible for any student property left in the residence hall rooms or public areas of the residence halls. In the event that student property is left in the residence halls after the housing contract has expired, the property will be removed at the owner's expense. The student will be notified by phone or letter to arrange a pick-up date. The hall staff will maintain lost and abandoned personal property left in rooms for at least 30 days, after which the property will be donated to an appropriate agency.

APPLIANCES

The electrical system within the residence halls is not designed to carry heavy loads of electrical equipment. For that reason and because of other safety concerns, open-faced electric or heating appliances such as hot plates, broilers, space heaters, toasters and George Foreman Grills are prohibited. Residents may have and use appliances with closed coil elements such as coffee pots and hot pots. You may also have a refrigerator (no larger than 4.0 cubic feet) and a microwave (not greater than 700 watts) in your room. Regardless of size of room or number of occupants, larger appliances cannot be accommodated.

BICYCLE STORAGE

Bicycle storage areas are provided outside of three of our residence halls. Bicycles must be kept in these areas or in student rooms. Bicycles left in public areas will be impounded.

DECORATING/PERSONALIZING YOUR SPACE

Students are encouraged to personalize their room with plants, posters, rugs, comforters and the like. When planning to decorate, it is important to keep in mind that no permanent changes may be made to the spaces, and any damage done in decorating the room (or removing decor at the end of the year) will result in a charge to the resident. No flammable decorations are allowed in the residence halls.

GROUP BILLING

Financial charges relating to the damage or theft of College property are billed to the specific individual(s) responsible whenever such individuals can be identified. When damage or theft cannot be assigned to a specific individual(s), the costs may be divided equally among the residents of the affected floor/house. This means that if any damage occurs in areas such as your floor, hallway, bathroom, which cannot be properly charged to an individual, all members of the floor or community may be billed equally for repairs. Similarly, damage or theft in your building which cannot be assigned to an individual, may result in building residents equally sharing in repair or replacement costs.

KEYS

You are issued a room key and an entrance key when you check into your residence hall. You are responsible for the security of your room - DO NOT LEND YOUR KEYS TO ANYONE. Lock your door whenever you leave. If you lose your key, inform someone on the residence hall staff as soon as possible. A lockout key will be issued to you until your locks can be changed. You will be charged $55 for your new lock and keys and $20 for your entrance key. NOTE: Duplication of residence hall keys is prohibited.

LOCK-OUTS

If you lock yourself out of your room, you may check out a lockout key from the Residence Life Office in Clark Hall or ask a Resident Assistant to let you into your room. Lockout keys may be issued for 30 minutes or 3 days. If the lockout key is not returned, a charge for a lock change will be assessed. The first time you lock yourself out of your residence hall room, requested assistance is free. Every time thereafter, you will be charged $5.

LOUNGE FURNITURE

Furniture in the lounges and other public areas of your residence is for use by all residents and their guests. Removal of furniture from public areas makes it unavailable to other residents. As a result, students moving furniture from any area of the building will be subject to conduct proceedings and may be prosecuted for theft.

PETS

Because there is some health risk involved (to humans and pets), no animal, with the exception of FISH may be taken into or kept in any residence hall.

ROOM FURNITURE

The furniture in your room and listed on your inventory form has been assigned to you and is expected to be returned in the same condition it was when you checked in to your room. Under no circumstances should residents remove any College property from their room.

ROOM ENTRY

The College respects the student's right to privacy. The College does, however, reserve the right to enter a student's room at any time for health, safety, welfare, and maintenance purposes. These entries are usually done with advance notice. Room inspections will be made each semester as part of hall closing. In cases where there is probable cause to believe that the student is or has been violating College and/or residence hall policies, the College can enter a student's room without a resident's permission. This right is exercised with great discretion.

ROOM CONDITION FORM

Upon check-in, you are required to note any existing damages in your room on a Room Condition Form (RCF). When filling out the RCF, describe the existing damages in detail; note any scratches, holes, and missing or broken furniture and fixtures. Upon completion, you and a Resident Assistant will sign the RCF prior to receiving your keys. When you check-out of the residence halls, a Resident Assistant will inspect your room. If the Resident Assistant finds anything broken, damaged, or unaccounted for that was not previously listed on the RCF, you will be required to pay for those damages.

THEFT AND LOSS

Promptly report information to your Resident Assistant, or a Campus Security Officer (792-2226) regarding the loss of property from your room.

In order to reduce the opportunity for theft, the Department of Residence Life recommends that you lock your room whenever you are away. It is also recommended that you record a complete description, including model and serial numbers of property such as stereos, televisions, etc.

COMPELLING COMMUNITY INTEREST:DISRUPTION OF THE EDUCATIONAL LIVING ENVIRONMENT

In order for a large number of people to live together successfully, it is the responsibility of each member of the community to respect the needs and the rights of the other members. The establishment and enforcement of rules that foster and encourage a proper campus living environment are necessary to the efficient and successful operation of any residence hall/house.

ALCOHOL

In the State of Idaho it is illegal to purchase, attempt to purchase, possess or consume alcoholic beverages if you are under the age of 21. It is also illegal to provide alcoholic beverages to anyone who is under the age of 21 or to anyone (regardless of age) who is visibly intoxicated. It is illegal to sell, serve, or furnish alcohol to a person under 21 years of age.

Alcohol is permitted only in the rooms of residents who are 21 years of age. Underage students are not to be in rooms where alcohol is present. Open containers of alcohol are prohibited in all public or "common" areas either inside or outside of buildings. Common areas include hallways, stairways, lobbies, lounges, laundry rooms, etc. In addition, a student room with an open door is considered a common area when the room door is open to the general view of people in the hallway.

Violations of this policy will be handled through the residence hall, College disciplinary system and/or prosecution by persons and agencies within the State of Idaho.

ALCOHOL GUIDELINES

Students 21 or older who choose to consume alcoholic beverages are expected to do so in moderation to ensure other residents' rights to privacy, sleep, and study. Loud or disruptive behavior, interference with the ability to maintain clean facilities or drinking habits which are disruptive or risk the health and safety of individuals will not be tolerated. The following guidelines pertain to consumption of alcohol in Lewis-Clark State College Residence Halls.

COHABITATION

Cohabitation is defined as a non-resident using a room as if they were a resident of that room. This includes: the presence of clothing and other personal belongings in the room; sleeping in the room; studying in the room on a regular basis; being in the room without the presence of the host and using the bathroom facilities as if they lived there. Disciplinary action will be taken against any resident whose guest interferes with his/her roommate's right of entry into their room or ability to study and/or sleep within their room.

DISRUPTIVE BEHAVIOR

Students are expected to cooperate with Residence Life staff and other College officials. A student shall not interfere with, annoy, disturb, or obstruct any other student or staff member of the College by means of noise, abusive language or any other nuisance. Students who verbally abuse, or fail to cooperate with College officials (including all members of the Residence Life Staff) acting in the performance of their duties, will face severe disciplinary action.

DRUGS

Possession, manufacture, distribution, use or sale of marijuana, drug narcotics or other controlled substances classified as illegal under Idaho law, except those taken under a doctor's prescription is prohibited. Any student known to be possessing, using, or distributing such drugs or drug paraphernalia will be subject to College disciplinary action and may be arrested under state and federal laws.

DISCRIMINATORY HARASSMENT

LCSC residence hall policy prohibits behavior based on another's status that has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive living and learning environment. Status refers to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, or disability. This policy is not intended to, and will not be applied, in a way that would violate rights to academic freedom and freedom of expression.

Sometimes discriminatory harassment is intentional and meant to be offensive. Often it is less obvious, yet equally offensive. Behaviors that may constitute discriminatory harassment include but are not limited to:

1. Racial, ethnic or other slurs;
2. Malicious name calling;
3. Anonymous notes or phone calls;
4. Derogatory graffiti;

5. Stereotyping the experiences, background and skills of individuals or groups;
6. Threatening members of diverse groups;
7. Making inconsiderate or mean-spirited jokes;
8. Imitating stereotypes in speech or mannerisms
9. Preventing access to any College resources or activity;
10. Attributing objections to any of the above to "hypersensitivity" of the targeted individual or group.

All members of the College community may raise concerns to any member of the Residence Life staff.

COMPELLING COMMUNITY INTEREST: LEGITIMATE EDUCATIONAL PURPOSE

Many times in student conduct situations, the question is asked, "Why are you here?" In most cases after some thought the answer is always, "To get an education." With this as a basic and fundamental premise it can then be understood that anything that does not directly or indirectly contribute to the accomplishment of this goal goes against the legitimate educational purpose of the College and the residence hall system. Therefore, the Department of Residence Life has established policies, procedures, and programs that support the compelling community interest of "Legitimate Educational Purpose."

BABYSITTING

For reasons of safety and liability, minors can not be brought to the housing facility for the purpose of babysitting.

DECORATION GUIDELINES

These guidelines are not intended to take away any students first amendment rights, but rather to facilitate the time, place and manner that decorating shall occur in Lewis-Clark State College Residence Halls.

1. Open forum space for all individuals residing in the residence halls will be limited to their room door and their window, provided that the decorations do not offend their roommate or clash with community standards.
2. Decorations are to be in strict compliance with the City of Lewiston health, welfare and fire codes (including all electrical wiring and cannot impede any escape routes, etc.).
3. All other student initiated decorating shall have a predetermined time frame for display which will be established by the RHA. The space for student-initiated open forum shall be strictly designated by the RHA. Space may be allotted in each residence hall facility and said space shall be open and public, but not to be an impediment. The RHA may require that some displays be monitored, should any safety concerns arise, such as a potential fire hazard.

ROOM DISPLAYS

You are free to display posters and other things in your room. Possessions or displays which are inconsistent with accepted standards or College policies should not be displayed on the outside of room doors or in general view of the public. This includes your room windows. For example, collections of alcoholic beverage containers, posters of nude men or women, and harassing or intimidating visual materials are generally considered inappropriate.

GAMBLING

All forms of gambling are prohibited on campus. The College also prohibits gambling at all student-sponsored activities and programs.

HALL/FLOOR PROGRAMMING

Each floor/house has an activity fund. Revenues for the activity fund come from the $15 per semester activity fee. These funds support a wide variety of activities and projects, including social and recreational activities, educational programs and facility improvements. Past activities have included the following: softball tournament, raft trips, paint ball games, talent show and much more. The development of activities is the joint responsibility of residence hall students and residence hall staff. Students are encouraged to be involved in the development of and participation in residence hall programs and activities. Members of the residence life staff will be more than happy to incorporate you into the planning process.

RESIDENT HALL ASSOCIATION (RHA)

Living in the residence halls automatically makes you a member of the Residence Hall Association. RHA is a student-run, inter-residence hall government system. This group plans various campus-wide programs and activities to entertain and educate residents. They also work in conjunction with the Department of Residence Life to enhance and improve the residence hall environment. All students are encouraged to attend and participate in meetings and events. RHA is funded by portions of the $15 per semester activity fee.

COURTESY QUIET HOURS

Courtesy Quiet Hours are in effect at all times. Courtesy hours allow all residents to sleep, study, relax or host visitors without distracting noise from neighbors. If asked to be quiet, students are expected to cooperate with the request.

QUIET HOURS

Quiet hours are 10:00 p.m. to 8:00 a.m. Sunday through Thursday. On weekends, quiet hours are from 12 midnight to 8:00 a.m. Some facilities may establish stricter policies if they so desire. In addition, all halls observe special quiet hours the week prior to and during Finals Week. During this time, 22 hour quiet hours will be in effect.

EXCESSIVE NOISE

Excessive noise (loud stereos, televisions, amplified instruments, loud voices, etc.) is an infringement on the rights of others and is unacceptable at LCSC. No amplified/music directed out a window is permitted. While it is the responsibility of everyone to control noise, it is also the responsibility of those victimized by noise to contact the offending party and request that the problem be eliminated.

Custodians work cooperatively with the students to make each residence hall a clean and safe place to live. They have a heavy workload and are not expected to clean up after parties, practical jokes, or any other unusual or excessive messes. Individual room cleaning is the responsibility of each resident.

It is wise not to leave your personal belongings unattended. Please report problems with the equipment to the Residence Life office. Refund slips are available at the Residence Life office.

HOUSING CONTRACT

HOUSING CONTRACT INFORMATION

The following section covers information found in the TERMS & CONDITIONS sheet and is also aimed at answering some of the most frequently asked questions. You should read and become familiar with the conditions of your contract because it is a binding agreement between you and the College.

CHECK-OUT PROCEDURES

Residents need to complete the check-out process by the time designated by the Residence Life office. It is the student's responsibility to follow the closing procedures that will be distributed prior to this time. Students who demonstrate a need to stay later (i.e. graduation, etc.) must make arrangements in advance at the Clark Hall Office.

Any student who has completed his or her finals and who participates in disruptive activities may be required to vacate the halls immediately.

Students who withdraw prior to the end of the semester must vacate their room within 48 hours of withdrawal. Any time you permanently vacate your room, you must properly check out with your RA. This includes having the room inventoried, returning your keys, and completing the necessary paperwork. You are responsible for the condition of your room, (including cleanliness) and for all the furnishings which were assigned to you.

IMPROPER CHECK-OUT

Any time a resident fails to check-out of his/her room properly, he/she shall be subject to an improper check-out charge ($35). These improper procedures include, but are not limited to:

- Switching rooms and/or keys without permission of the Office of Residence Life.
- Failing to check-out of the room by the prescribed date and time.
- Leaving the room or the system without going through the check-out procedure.

FINANCIAL OBLIGATION

- A. A student is officially checked into a residence hall room once they have been given a key to the room and completed and signed the room inventory form.
- B. Students are solely responsible for the entire rental rate which they selected. Students will not be eligible for any refund even if they choose to move out of the residence halls before the stated termination date of their housing contract. For exceptions, see Termination of Contract.

RENTER'S INSURANCE

As a tenant, your belongings are not insured from theft, fire, or water damage while you are renting from the College. The College strongly recommends that students purchase renter's insurance or make arrangements with the parents' insurance company to insure coverage of personal belongings.

ROOM ASSIGNMENTS

The Department of Residence Life reserves the right to make all hall and room assignments and to make any subsequent changes considered advisable or necessary. During all semesters, the College reserves the right to require single occupants of double occupancy rooms to move to a new room, acquire a new roommate or pay for a double room as a single room (additional $275 per semester).

ROOM/HALL CHANGES

If you would like to move to a different room or to a different floor within your residence hall, contact your Hall Director. Because of the need to account for all students and maintain accurate records during check-in, there will be no changes in room/hall assignments until two weeks after the halls open. After two weeks, the RHD will approve room changes provided space is available and all parties agree. Students will not be allowed to move until given official notice. Moving without permission will result in charges and possible disciplinary action. NOTE: The Department of Residence Life reserves the right to limit the number of room moves allowed in any given semester.

SINGLE ROOMS

Each hall has designated single rooms. A waiting list for all single room requests is maintained by the Residence Hall Director in each hall. On a space available basis, students may also contract to live in a double-as-single room. The additional charge for this room is $325 per semester. This consideration will be allowed for only one semester at a time (i.e. continuation from fall to spring in a double-as-single is based on the availability of space for the spring term). The additional cost of a single room is not refundable. Furthermore, triples and quads will not be sold as singles or quads as doubles.

TERMINATION OF CONTRACT

Students who wish to terminate this contract prior to the end of the contract period are subject to the following terms and conditions (in all cases, the deposit will be forfeited):

- A. Under all conditions a Petition for Contract Release must be completed with the Office of Residence Life. This includes students who are getting married, transferring, or withdrawing from the College. Approval or non-approval of the petition is contingent upon meeting the criteria set forth in the petition. Termination of the contract is not guaranteed.
- B. A student whose petition is denied shall be obligated for the full amount of the room contract.
- C. Students who are required to leave the residence hall due to disciplinary action are still responsible for the entire semester or academic year room rent.
