

Psychology 370

Peace, Conflict and Violence

This is an interdisciplinary introduction to the field of peace psychology with an emphasis on methods of nonviolent conflict resolution. An historical perspective of the causes of war and peace will be used to introduce the basic concepts of peace psychology. Topics will include nonviolence and nonviolent social action, conflict resolution, negotiation, political participation, and activism. The content and applications of concepts will draw upon current national and international situations.

Instructor: Dan Mayton

