Texts Required:

Comer, R. J. & Comer, J. S. (2019). Fundamentals of abnormal psychology (9th ed.). Worth Publishers.

Earley, P. (2006). Crazy: A father's search through American's mental health madness. Berkley Publishing Group.

Purpose: Abnormal Psychology is a junior level course designed to introduce students to the field of psychopathology, including overviews of history and treatment. Controversies and limitations of current conceptualizations of psychopathology will be reviewed, with the goal of providing a broad and diverse base for understanding the contexts within which the field currently operates.

Objectives:

- 1) Be able to articulate the contextual and subjective nature of abnormality.
- 2) Be able to articulate general principles of clinical treatment.
- 3) Demonstrate critical thinking skills regarding controversies in the field.
- 4) Demonstrate knowledge of general areas of psychopathology (e.g., anxiety, depression).

COVID-19 Considerations: Be aware that anything about the syllabus may change depending on evolving realities associated with the pandemic. In general, you can expect that coursework scheduling will remain consistent under normal circumstances. However, due to outside forces beyond the control of faculty and/or staff at LCSC, schedule and delivery modalities could change. While course times and meeting days should remain the same (excluding class cancellations), delivery modalities (face-to-face, virtual remote, online, etc.) may change due to extenuating circumstances. When circumstances warrant, assignment due dates or changes to assignments may be made. I will communicate such changes with students in a timely manner. Examples of extenuating circumstances include, but are not limited to: inclement weather, natural disaster, localized power outages, local or state directives, or instructor obligations (e.g., community or college service, professional development, injury/illness, etc.).

If you develop symptoms of COVID-19 or any other communicable illness, do not attend any of your classes in person and contact the LCSC Student Health Center right away: (208) 792-2251. Please also email me right away, so that we can adjust your participation as needed.

While this isn't new territory anymore, let's all do our best to be patient and understand that if things don't always go exactly as planned, we will try to creatively problem-solve any issues that arise. We will also periodically check-in with each other to see how things are working for everyone and readjust as necessary. Our flexibility and understanding in this ongoing, fluid process will help make this semester a success!

Please check your LCSC email account at least once every day. It is the major way I communicate with you between class meetings.

A note to persons with disabilities: If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, if you have emergency medical information to share with me, or if you need special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible. My office location, office hours, phone number, and email address are noted above. I'm also happy to work with Accessibility Services here on the LCSC campus.

General: All papers must be typed, with no more than 1-inch margins and 12-point font. Assignments must be turned in to me in hard copy form, unless otherwise specified. As always, grammar/punctuation/spelling are important and count as part of the total grade on any assignment. Late papers will be accepted for up to 3 days after the assignment is due; 10% of the paper's worth will be taken for each day the paper is late (e.g., if a paper is 2 days late, 20% of the paper's worth will be deducted before any other grading). No papers will be accepted more than 3 days late. If not turning in a paper during class, take it to the Social Sciences Division office and place it in my mailbox, or in the box outside the Social Sciences Division door. You may also slide it under my office door. All papers must be in APA format. Please note that APA format was revised in 2019 (7th edition). You must use the most recent revision. If you are not familiar with APA format, please see me.

Suggested or required paper lengths do not include cover page or reference page(s); an abstract is not required.

There are no makeup exams.

PLEASE NOTE: I have a standing offer to briefly review any paper that has an upcoming due date and give you feedback about whether you are on the right track, improvements you could make, or anything else about which you have a question. To exercise this option, you must give me no more than a 3-page excerpt to review at least a week before it is due, and it must be typed.

Note on attendance: You are responsible for anything covered in class during your absence. This includes lecture material, handouts, and any announcements or revisions made to the reading schedule. Please consult with a peer or myself when class is missed.

Classroom Etiquette: All students enrolled in this course shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. Note: In this classroom, proper behavior conducive to a positive learning environment includes the stowing of all cell phones, iPads, laptops, and any other distracting electronic device. In other words, this class will be a “no technology zone.” If you feel strongly that you need to have a device out during class, please discuss with me privately.

Movie writing assignment: From a list provided, you will select one film in which some form of psychopathology is presented. Based upon your viewing of the film, you will write a diagnostic report that includes the following:

A description of the character and a clear diagnosis of the behavior depicted. Make it clear how the behaviors portrayed in the movie fit the criteria for the diagnosis according to DSM-5. Thus, you will utilize the diagnostic criteria listed in the DSM-5, and examine each criterion and how it was or was not portrayed in the movie. Give specific examples of how the diagnostic criteria were met, and note when no information is provided that would allow you to determine the presence of some criteria. In general, the more detail provided the better the paper.

The criteria from the DSM-5, or DSM-5 TR, must be utilized, cited as direct quotes. Note that utilizing criteria from a source other than the DSM-5, or the DSM-5 TR, but citing them as coming from the DSM-5 (e.g., in the reference list), is a form of plagiarism and will be handled as such.

Choose only one diagnosis (the best and clearest), and only one character upon which to focus your paper.

There is no minimum as to paper length, however, I would be surprised if you could do a good job in less than 8 – 10 pages.

Grading will be as follows:

Diagnosis and rationale, use of DSM-5	75 points
Grammar/punctuation/use of APA style, etc.	25 points
Clarity and comprehensiveness	25 points

Reflections: There is a reflection required for the documentary Kill or Cure: A History of Medical Treatment.

Reference

Berentsen, Q., & Hall, M. (Producers). (2006). Madness [Documentary series episode]. In NHNZ Productions Kill or cure: A history of medical treatment. Films for the Sciences & Humanities.

Also, as we read Crazy, you have reflection questions to which you are to respond in written form.

Reflections for a specific week are to be brought to class the day they are due, and handed in then. Papers should be typed, double-spaced, and no less than 1 but no more than 2 pages. Clearly name and date each paper with a cover page in APA style and include the reflection question itself on the cover page.

Reflections are worth 20 points each. Grading is as follows:

Writing (including grammar, punctuation, etc.)	5 points
APA style	5 points
Content	10 points
