BYLAWS OF THE ASSOCIATED STUDENTS OF LEWIS-CLARK STATE COLLEGE

Article I—Purpose

I. Section A: Statements

- 1.000 The purpose of this document is to outline and guide the elected and appointed members of the Associated Students of Lewis-Clark State College (ASLCSC) Council in the day-to-day operation of the ASLCSC that are not defined in the Constitution of the ASLCSC.
- 2.000 The ASLCSC shall not discriminate and shall strive to create a campus environment which understands, fosters, and embraces the expression of diversity among students, faculty, administration, and staff. Diversity encompasses differences in age, color, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, national origin, political interests, disability, race, religion, sexual orientation, socio-economic background, or veteran status.
- 3.000 Lewis-Clark State College, ASLCSC, and the ASLCSC Council does not exclude from participation in, deny the benefits of, or subject any individual to discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, age, sex, national origin, disability, gender identity, protected veteran status, sexual orientation, political viewpoint or any other status protected under applicable federal, state or local law, or college policy. This policy applies to all programs, services, and facilities, including applications, admissions, access to activities, and employment.

I. Section B: Constitutional Preamble

- 1.000 We the students of Lewis-Clark State College, in the belief that students have the right and duty to play a significant role in guiding their college, do hereby establish the ASLCSC Constitution to facilitate the following: the articulation of student opinions and interests both in governance of the college and to the community; the encouragement of the greatest level of cooperation and communication between students and their organizations; the assurance of full student access to quality education; the provision for programs and services to benefit students; and the encouragement of the highest level of excellence in education.

Article II—Council Members

II. Section A: ASLCSC Officers

1.000 ASLCSC President

- 1.100 In the course of their duties, the President shall be expected to:
- 1.110 Call the session of the Council to order at the specified time of the specified day of the academic year as specified in the ASLCSC Bylaws.
 - 1.120 Prepare the agenda of the order of business for each Council meeting.
 - 1.121 Set and draft a preliminary agenda and distribute it to each member of the ASLCSC Council twenty-four (24) hours prior to the meeting.
 - 1.122 Place onto the agenda any item submitted to the president's electronic inbox by an ASLCSC Council member before 12:00pm of the Monday before a Council session.
 - 1.123 With the consent of the ASLCSC Advisor, prevent any item that, if passed or presented to the Council, would be illegal or violate campus policy or otherwise demonstrably harm the dignity of the student body, college or the Council, from being placed onto the agenda.
 - 1.124 The ASLCSC Advisor must be provided an electronic statement of the rationale for this prevention of scheduling and may override the ASLCSC President if the agenda item does not harm the dignity of the college or violate the law or a specific campus policy.
 - 1.125 Add, remove, or reorder agenda items during Council meetings as necessary.
 - 1.130 Ensure that minutes and roll are kept of all Council meetings by the ASLCSC Secretary and/or designee.
 - 1.131 In the event of absence of the ASLCSC Secretary, the President shall designate a replacement, whether they be a Council member or not, to conduct roll and record the minutes.
 - 1.132 The President shall ensure that the Secretary and/or designee transcribes and distributes the minutes to all appropriate parties within twenty-four (24) hours of the next Council session.
 - 1.140 Preserve order and decorum during Council meetings and to decide points of order and parliamentary inquiry with the advice of the ASLCSC Advisor.
 - 1.150 Conduct and declare all votes.
 - 1.160 Communicate the actions of the ASLCSC Council to the appropriate person(s), bodies, or both.
 - 1.170 Serve as ex-officio member of the ASLCSC Ethics Committee and as a member of the ASLCSC Ways and Means Committee.
 - 1.180 Oversee and account for the following ASLCSC accounts: General Reserve and General Operations.
- 1.200 The President may spend up to five hundred dollars ($500.00) out of the general account once per semester without prior approval from the Council.
- 1.210 The President may not allocate funds towards agenda items which have gone before the Council and were not subsequently affirmed by a majority vote.
- 1.300 The President shall organize an ASLCSC Council retreat and work session(s) to plan and organize the operations of the ASLCSC for the school year.
- 1.310 This retreat will take place prior to October 1st and will not exceed a total cost of two thousand and twenty-three dollars ($2,023).
- 1.400 Prior to assuming office, A Letter of Intent will be filed with the Election Board by the President-elect stating their acceptance of the office for which they have been elected.

- 1.410 Letters of Intent are due in the ASLCSC Council Office no later than 4:30pm the Friday before Sine Die.
- 1.500 A signed Statement of Acknowledgement, indicative of comprehension of the ASLCSC Code of Ethics and Attendance Policy, will be submitted to the ASLCSC Secretary and/or designee no later than 4:30pm the Friday before Sine Die.
- 1.600 The president may veto votes of the ASLCSC Council within forty-eight (48) hours of a Council session. Electronic notification of the veto must be provided to all Council members, the ASLCSC Advisor, and the ASLCSC Secretary or designee at the time a veto is exercised.
 - 1.610 If the veto power is exercised, a rationale must be provided along with the electronic statement of veto.
 - 1.620 There is no veto authority over Ethics Committee rulings, vacancy nominations, stipend reductions, or stipend modifications and the veto power may not be exercised during grievance proceedings.
 - 1.630 The ASLCSC Council may overturn a veto upon a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the Senate with quorum at the next General Session of the Council.
- 1.700 Failure to fulfill duties delineated in the ASLCSC Bylaws & Constitution will result in a stipend reduction as deemed necessary by the ASLCSC Advisor subject to a majority vote of the Council.
- 2.000 ASLCSC Vice-President
 - 2.100 In the course of their duties, the Vice-President shall be expected to:
 - 2.110 Keep, maintain, and share records of the present financial status of all ASLCSC accounts at the second Council meeting of each month.
 - 2.111 Examine the spending records of all accounts, both periodically and upon the request of the ASLCSC President, Senate Pro-Tempore, ASLCSC Advisor, or ASLCSC Secretary or designee.
 - 2.112 Oversee all accounts supported by student fees and administered by the ASLCSC.
 - 2.113 Serve as the financial liaison to the ASLCSC Council on all matters concerning ASLCSC funds.
 - 2.114 Meet with the Finance Committee throughout the school year prior to any address of the financial budgetary issues to the ASLCSC Council.
 - 2.120 Cast a vote in situations where there is a tie on a vote related to ASLCSC Council agenda items, appointments, or chairpersons of the ASLCSC.
 - 2.121 The ASLCSC Vice-President shall not vote on any matters related to stipend reduction, stipend modification, or the grievance process.
 - 2.130 Serve as chairperson for the Finance and Graduation Celebration committees.
 - 2.131 May spend up to two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) from the Craft Fair or Graduation accounts. Approval of the Council by a simple majority is required for any expenditure over two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) from the Craft Fair Account or the Graduation Account.
 - 2.132 Must receive a two-thirds (2/3) approval vote of the Council present for any expenditure from any ASLCSC account that will place that account into a deficit or if that account is already in deficit.
- 2.200 A Letter of Intent will be filed with the Election Board by the Vice-President elect stating acceptance of the office of ASLCSC Vice-President.
 - 2.210 The Letter of Intent is due in the ASLCSC Advisor's office no later than 4:30pm the Friday before Sine Die.

- 2.300 A signed Statement of Acknowledgement, indicative of comprehension of the ASLCSC Code of Ethics and Attendance Policy, will be submitted to the ASLCSC Secretary and/or designee no later than 4:30pm the Friday before Sine Die.
- 2.400 Failure to fulfill duties delineated in the ASLCSC Bylaws & Constitution will result in a stipend reduction as deemed necessary by the ASLCSC Advisor subject to a majority vote of the Council with quorum.

12.000 Vacant Seats

12.100 Vacant seats of the ASLCSC Council shall be filled according to the following procedure:

12.110 The Senate Pro-Tempore and Media Relations Senator must make reasonable efforts to inform the student body of the vacancy before the President makes a recommendation to the ASLCSC Council.

12.111 No appointments can be made until at least ten (10) business days after the advertising has started.

12.120 When a Council seat becomes vacant for any reason, the President shall recommend to the Council a nominee for consideration of appointment.

12.121 The recommendation must pass the ASLCSC Council with a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the ASLCSC Council present.

12.130 If, for any reason, a recommendation of an applicant is not submitted to the ASLCSC Senate Pro-Tempore within twenty (20) business days after the vacancy has opened, any ASLCSC Senator or the ASLCSC Advisor may introduce an agenda item to the ASLCSC Council with their nomination for appointment.

12.140 A vacancy occurring in the ASLCSC Presidency shall be filled by the ASLCSC Vice-President.

12.150 When the subsequent vacancy of the ASLCSC Vice-President occurs, the Senate Pro-Tempore of the ASLCSC Council shall assume the duties of the Vice-President until a new Vice-President is appointed by the ASLCSC President.

12.151 If an appointment is not put forward by the President within ten (10) business days from the date of vacancy, the acting Vice-President shall become the new ASLCSC Vice-President.

12.160 No member of the ASLCSC shall hold more than one position in the ASLCSC Council.

13.000 Mandatory meeting for the ASLCSC Council

13.100 A mandatory meeting will be held for the President-, Vice-President-, and all Senator-elects with the incumbent President, Vice-President, and Senate Pro-Tempore.

13.110 The meeting will be held prior to Sine Die at the time and location specified in the ASLCSC Election Code and General Election Calendar.

13.120 The incumbent President shall sponsor and notify all participants of the meeting.

13.130 The meeting shall be presided over by the incumbent President.

13.140 Further information regarding the meeting can be found in section five (5) of the ASLCSC Election Code.

14.000 Sine Die

14.100 The ASLCSC Council in their second regular session will be dismissed at their last regular meeting on the Tuesday of the week prior to Final Exam Week.

14.110 The incoming ASLCSC Council in their first regular session will convene on the first Tuesday in May, immediately following the dismissal of the outgoing Council.

II. Section B: Business Conduct

1.000 Definition of Business

1.100 Business will be conducted through a general discussion with a roll call vote taken by the ASLCSC Secretary or designee and recorded in the minutes. Business will include all items listed in ASLCSC Bylaws Article II Section A: Line 10.161.

1.200 Unless otherwise specified by the ASLCSC Bylaws or Constitution, business items shall pass or fail by a simple majority with a quorum and may be subject to Presidential veto.

2.000 Definition of Resolution

2.100 Resolutions shall consist of an official written statement of intent, feeling, or official position of the ASLCSC, directed towards a person, body, or policy.

2.200 Resolutions are established by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the ASLCSC Council.

3.000 Definition of General Council Meeting

3.100 “General Council Meeting” refers to the convening of the ASLCSC Council to decide on and/or deliberate towards a decision on any matter on the date fixed by the ASLCSC Bylaws to conduct business.

3.110 Special Council meeting refers to the convening of the ASLCSC Council in accordance with a special call for the conduct of business.

3.120 No Special Council meeting shall be held without at least a twenty-four (24) hour meeting and agenda notice, unless an emergency arises.

3.121 An emergency refers to a situation that includes, but is not limited to, injury and/or damage to persons and/or property, immediate financial loss, or the likelihood of an injury, damage, or loss. A special meeting held due to an emergency is exempt from the notice requirements if it is impractical, increases the likelihood and/or severity of such injury, damage, or loss, or the reason for the emergency is stated at the outset of the meeting.

3.130 An Executive Session is not considered a Special Council Meeting.

4.000 Submitting an Agenda Item

- 4.100 Business will be addressed during a meeting and, if the business needs voted on, a roll call vote will be taken with the results recorded in the minutes.
- 4.200 New business will be submitted by members of the ASLCSC Council to the President Monday before 12:00pm. The agenda will be delivered via email to all members at least twenty-four (24) hours before meeting to all members of ASLCSC.
- 4.300 Items submitted to the ASLCSC President by a Council member or LCSC Administration before the deadline will be placed on the agenda except under the submission of a written appeal with rationale to the ASLCSC Advisor if the ASLCSC President exercises their prevention power described in the ASLCSC Bylaws Article II Section A 1.123.
- 4.400 When submitting agenda items to the ASLCSC President's office, ASLCSC members shall forward the agenda items to the ASLCSC Advisor, ASLCSC Secretary, or designee to ensure equitable agenda setting.

Article III—Committees

III. Section A: ASLCSC Council Committees

1.000 Council Committees

- 1.100 The term “committee” for this section is a general term for committee, sub-committee, board, liaison, advisory, and similar bodies.
- 1.110 The ASLCSC shall have three main types of committees:
- I. “LCSC Campus Committees,” consisting of committees to which an official ASLCSC representative has been invited.
 - II. “General Council Committees,” consisting of all committees overseen by the ASLCSC that are not special committees.
 - III. “Special Council Committees,” consisting of all committees which have special rules governing their membership, operations, and/or responsibilities and are overseen by the ASLCSC.
- 1.200 The ASLCSC Special Council Committees consist of: the Election Board, Ethics Committee, Finance Committee, and the Ways and Means Committee. These listed Council Special Committees are specially governed by the ASLCSC bylaws in this section.
- 1.300 All ASLCSC Committees shall be bound by the ASLCSC Constitution, Bylaws, Codes, and Policies and Procedures.
- 1.400 No ASLCSC Council Committee shall conduct official business without a quorum.
- 1.410 A quorum is defined as no less than fifty-one percent (51%) of the voting members.
- 1.500 All ASLCSC Council Committees shall convene for the first meeting of each academic year as soon as feasible.
- 1.600 Committee chairperson, vice-chairperson, and secretary will be appointed by the ASLCSC President unless otherwise stipulated in the ASLCSC Constitution, Bylaws, Codes, or Policies and Procedures.
- 1.700 Council committees consist of all committees directly under the purview of the ASLCSC Council.
- 1.710 Council committees include all special, general, and temporary committees.

2.000 Rules and Responsibilities

- 2.100 All representatives serving on ASLCSC Council Committees will follow the recognized rules and regulations of the committee(s) on which they serve unless in conflict with the Student Code of Conduct, the law, or campus policy.
- 2.200 No committee shall conduct business without a quorum.
- 2.300 Maintain contact and provide copies of minutes from meetings to the Committees Senator.
- 2.400 At the first committee meeting of the academic year, all committees will discuss, set, or amend the Policies and Procedures if necessary. The committees shall also set and submit goals of the committee for the year to the Committees Senator.
- 2.410 Any new or amended Policies and Procedures of the committee shall be sent to the Justice Senator for review of constitutionality.
- 2.411 Upon the Justice Senator’s approval of constitutionality, the Policies and Procedures must be sent to the ASLCSC Council for ratification.
- 2.420 If the committee feels that no goals can be set for the committee, the committee may decide, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote, to make a recommendation to the ASLCSC Council to dissolve the committee.
- 2.421 To formally dissolve an ASLCSC Council Committee, a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the ASLCSC Council must approve the dissolution.

- 2.422 If the ASLCSC Council does not approve the dissolution of the Council Committee, the ASLCSC Council must make recommendations for a course of action for the committee.
 - 2.423 ASLCSC General Council Committees shall be created or dissolved by an ASLCSC Bylaw Amendment to Article III Section C. Committees, unless specified below as a Special Council Committee, are considered General Committees and are thus bound by the guidelines in Article III, Section A.
- 2.500 Committee meetings shall be conducted by the committee chairperson. With the absence of the chairperson from a committee meeting, the vice-chairperson shall conduct the meeting.
- 2.600 Committee members shall rely on past documents and the Policies and Procedures for guidance or contact the ASLCSC Advisor, ASLCSC Secretary, or designee for assistance.
- 2.700 ASLCSC Council representatives serving on ASLCSC Council Committees are required to report to the ASLCSC Council on the committee activities at the first Council session following the ASLCSC Council Committee meeting.
- 3.000 Positions
 - 3.100 Any member of the ASLCSC may serve as a representative on General Council Committees with the approval of the Committees Senator and ASCLSC Advisor.
 - 3.200 Upon the resignation of any committee chairperson, the vice-chairperson shall become the chairperson and a new vice-chair will be elected by a majority vote of the committee.
- 4.000 Finance Committee
 - 4.100 The Finance Committee shall consist of four (4) ASLCSC Senators and the ASLCSC Vice-President as the chairperson, with the ASLCSC President as a non-voting ex-officio member.
 - 4.200 The duties and responsibilities of the Finance Committee shall include:
 - 4.210 Advising the ASLCSC Council on the appropriation of ASLCSC Council funds.
 - 4.211 ASLCSC Council funds include, but are not limited to, General Operations, General Reserve, Student Council Stipends, Graduation Celebration, Craft Fair, and Clubs and Organizations.
 - 4.212 To ensure up-to-date Policies and Procedures, forms regarding club funding opportunities shall be found on the ASLCSC webpage.
 - 4.213 Clubs and Organizations are entitled to start-up and matching funds from the ASLCSC Clubs and Organizations fund as well as the right to apply for supplemental funding from the ASLCSC Clubs and Organizations fund.
 - 4.214 Clubs and Organizations will submit a request electronically through the ASLCSC Webpage to the ASLCSC Advisor by November 1st or March 1st for the fall and spring semesters respectively. This will include an account statement for dollar amount when applying for fund matching.
 - 4.215 Proposals and applications for supplemental funding are presented to the Finance Committee for disbursement consideration.
 - 4.216 Agenda items for approval for Clubs and Organizations funding shall be initiated by the chairperson to be brought to the ASLCSC Council floor for approval by simple majority vote of the ASLCSC Council present.
 - 4.220 Being the advisory body for the ASLCSC Council and Ethics Committee on all matters of financial concern regarding the misuse of ASLCSC funds, such as embezzlement, misappropriation of funds, and violations of LCSC policy. These concerns may be forwarded to the relevant campus and law enforcement authorities if there is clear evidence of any of the aforementioned offenses.

5.000 Ethics Committee

- 5.100 The Ethics Committee shall consist of three (3) ASLCSC Senators, with the President as a non-voting ex-officio member, and the Justice Senator as the chairperson.
- 5.110 The Senate Pro-Tempore, or the most senior member of ASLCSC without a conflict of interest, will stand in place for Justice Senator if a clear conflict of interest exists.
- 5.200 The duties and responsibilities of the Ethics Committee shall include:
 - 5.210 Reviewing in-house grievances of the ASLCSC Council and making recommendations to the ASLCSC Council for final action.
 - 5.211 All grievances must be filed in writing and electronically with the chair per the grievance procedures outlined in Article VI Section B.
 - 5.220 Recommending in writing to the ASLCSC Council any ASLCSC Senator for reprimand or impeachment.
 - 5.221 This recommendation can only come after a formal investigation by the ASLCSC Ways and Means Committee.
 - 5.230 Recommending for a special commendation any ASLCSC Senators who have shown exemplary service to or for the ASLCSC.
 - 5.231 A special commendation is available only for recognition of service or achievements above and beyond the regular call of duty for ASLCSC Council.
 - 5.232 A special commendation is not the same as an award for service.
 - 5.240 Performing other duties within the confines of the Bylaws that the Justice Senator deems appropriate.

6.000 Ways and Means Committee

- 6.100 The Ways and Means Committee shall consist of the chairpersons of the Finance and Ethics Committees, the Senate Pro-Tempore, and the President, unless there is a conflict of interest for a member of this committee, in which case these vacancies may be filled by designees appointed by the ASLCSC Advisor at their discretion.
- 6.200 The Senate Pro-Tempore shall be the chairperson of the Ways and Means Committee.
- 6.300 In the event of absence or conflict of interest, vacancies on the Ways and Means Committee shall be filled by the most experienced members of ASLCSC without conflicts of interest.
- 6.400 The Committee will meet when deemed necessary by the chairperson, or when deemed necessary by the ASLCSC President.
- 6.500 The duties and responsibilities of the Ways and Means Committee shall include:
 - 6.510 Investigation of any improper ASLCSC Council activities.
 - 6.520 Maintaining up-to-date copies of the ASLCSC Constitution, Bylaws, Codes, and Policies and Procedures.
 - 6.530 Reviewing and making recommendations to the ASLCSC Council on all amendments to the ASLCSC Constitution, Bylaws, Codes, and Policies and Procedures.
 - 6.540 Performing other functions that the ASLCSC Senate Pro-Tempore and/or the ASLCSC Advisor deem appropriate.

III. Section B: LCSC Campus Committees

1.000 General

1.100 The term “committee” is a general term for committee, sub-committee, Council, board, liaison, advisory, working group, and similar bodies.

1.200 Campus Committees consist of all committees directly under the purview of LCSC.

2.000 Rules and Responsibilities

2.100 ASLCSC representatives serving on LCSC Campus Committees will follow the ASLCSC Constitution, Bylaws, Codes of Conduct, and Policies and Procedures, as well as the policies, procedures, rules, charters, and regulations of the committee(s) on which they serve.

2.200 ASLCSC representative(s) serving on LCSC Campus Committees are required to attend all committee meetings and report to the ASLCSC Council on the respective committees’ activities at the first ASLCSC Council session following the LCSC Campus Committee meeting. Meeting minutes will be submitted to the Committees Senator.

2.210 If unable to attend a committee meeting, the Council member assigned to that committee shall find a replacement to attend in their stead.

2.220 Failure to attend committee meetings and/or find a replacement may result in stipend reduction, stipend modification, or other form of censure.

2.230 Outstanding circumstances will be decided on a per-case basis by consensus of the ASLCSC Advisor and the ASLCSC President.

3.000 Positions

3.100 Any member of the ASLCSC Council may serve as an ASLCSC representative on LCSC Campus Committees with the approval of the ASLCSC Council.

3.110 The ASLCSC Committee Senator will keep a public record of committee assignments and the ASLCSC President will appoint a representative for each committee.

3.200 The number of student representatives on each LCSC Campus Committee shall be determined by the various LCSC constitutions, bylaws, policies, procedures, rules, charters, regulations, etc.

IV: Section A: Amending Bylaws

1.000 Standard Amendment Procedure

1.100 Changes to the Bylaws shall be clearly and comprehensively recorded via document comparison tools present in many word-processing software to ensure that those reviewing the amendment are fully aware of all modifications. Amendments whose Bylaw modifications are not fully known or documented shall not be considered.

1.200 Prior to submitting a Bylaw Amendment, modifications must be added as an agenda item for consideration by the Council.

1.210 A Statement of Intent, constituting the rationale for modification, shall be included in the amendment proposal.

1.300 Bylaw Amendments comprising edits in excess of seven (7) pages of the Bylaws shall be considered omnibus revisions.

1.230 Omnibus revisions shall be recorded and numbered in Article IX with the date of revision.

1.400 Any member of the ASLCSC Council may submit a Bylaw Amendment.

1.500 The Bylaw Amendment submission process shall proceed as follows:

1.510 Submit the proposed agenda item and Statement of Intent to the Justice Senator.

- 1.520 The Justice Senator shall render an expeditious ruling of constitutionality and return the agenda item and Statement of Intent, along with the written and signed ruling, to the author, within a period not to exceed ten (10) business days.
- 1.530 If the agenda item has been ruled constitutional, the author shall submit the agenda item to the Senate Pro-Tempore for convening of the Ways and Means Committee.
 - 1.531 When the agenda item reaches the Ways and Means Committee, the Committee shall review and make recommendations to the Council expeditiously, within a period not to exceed ten (10) business days.
 - 1.532 If revisions of the agenda item have been suggested, the agenda item shall be returned to the author and the author may resubmit it to the Justice Senator once the revisions have been made.
 - 1.533 If the author disagrees with suggested revisions, the agenda item may be given to the ASLCSC President to be placed upon the agenda for the next Council meeting.
- 1.540 If the agenda item has not been ruled constitutional, the author may revise the agenda item according to the ruling and resubmit to the Justice Senator for review.

- 1.600 This agenda item shall be passed if it receives a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the ASLCSC Council members.

2.000 Formatting of the ASLCSC Bylaws

- 2.100 Articles shall be listed by roman numeral in bold underlined italics, with a hyphen appearing between the numeral and title of the article.
- 2.200 Sections shall be listed by letter in bold following its article numeral.
- 2.300 Underneath sections, lines shall be numbered by bolded Arabic numeral sequence following a x.xxx format.
 - 2.310 Lines with numbers ending in x.000 shall be bolded if functioning as a line title.
- 2.400 This line is referenceable as IV A: 2.400 or Article IV Section A: Line 2.400.
- 2.500 A blank line shall be placed in between sections and a page break placed after the end of each article.
- 2.600 The standardized formatting for ASLCSC Bylaws shall be 12-point Times New Roman font single-spaced in black text with 0.5” margins on all edges of the page.
- 2.700 Resolutions shall follow the formatting conventions of Council Resolution No.1.

3.000 Fast-track Bylaw Amendment Process

- 3.100 The Fast-track Bylaw Amendment Process (FBAP) shall be defined as a special and emergency Bylaw Amendment process requiring only the submission as an agenda item and the approval of a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of a Regular Session.
 - 3.110 The FBAP may take place only during a regular Tuesday session of the Council.
- 3.200 The ASLCSC Advisor, the Vice President for Student Affairs, or the President of the College or their official representative may submit Bylaw Amendments through the FBAP to ensure compliance of the ASLCSC Bylaws with federal, state, county, and city law as well as LCSC policies and procedures.
- 3.300 The FBAP shall be used in emergency circumstances when the standard amendment process would take a prohibitively large amount of time.

Article V—Elections

V. Section A: Election Board

1.000 Election Board

- 1.100 The Election Board shall consist of at least five (5) members.
- 1.120 The chairperson of the Election Board shall be the Justice Senator unless otherwise specified by ASLCSC Bylaws Article II Section A Line 6.100.
- 1.121 The chairperson shall nominate members for the Election Board as deemed appropriate by the ASLCSC Advisor.
- 1.130 Members of the Election Board are not eligible to run for an elected ASLCSC Council office.
- 1.131 In the event that an Election Board member receives write-in votes, the Election Board member is prohibited from filling the position.
- 1.140 Members of the Election Board shall serve for one (1) academic year and may serve subsequent years at the discretion of the ASLCSC Council.
- 1.150 Members of the Election Board shall not be allowed to actively support, promote, or campaign for or against any candidate to be decided by an ASLCSC election. Election Board members are permitted to vote in the elections.
- 1.160 An Election Code shall be proposed by the Election Board and reviewed by the ASLCSC Justice Senator for constitutionality. The ASLCSC Justice Senator shall submit the Election Code to the ASLCSC Council for approval on or before the last Council meeting in October.
- 1.161 The Election Code shall consist of, but is not limited to, information about the following: General Elections, Special Elections, Recall Elections, candidates, candidate filing forms, campaign rules, election calendar, ballots, voting, election results, and candidates' Letters of Intent.
- 1.162 The Election Code shall also include all election and campaign rules not covered within the ASLCSC Constitution or Bylaws.
- 1.170 The General Elections will take place during the spring semester in accordance with the Election Code and election calendar.
- 1.180 The Election Board chairperson shall present a proposed ballot to the Council a minimum of three weeks preceding every election.
- 1.181 Upon the Council's approval of the proposed ballot, the chairperson is responsible for ensuring that the student newspaper is presented with, and asked to print, the approved sample ballot in the issue one week prior to the election.
- 1.200 The Election Board will post positions and issues for all elections. The dates of the elections will also be posted.
- 1.210 The Election Board will ensure that the information is posted in all campus-wide mediums and kiosks.
- 1.220 All questions concerning elections shall be presented to the Election Board, in writing, within five (5) business days following the election.
- 1.211 All requests for hearings must be in writing.
- 1.230 All disputes and irregularities are to be decided by a simple majority of Election Board members unless otherwise required by LCSC policies.

- 2.230 No proxy votes shall be permitted.
- 2.240 Voting shall be done by Secret and Absentee Ballot, which shall be provided by the Election Board.
- 2.250 Absentee Ballots, if implemented, shall be postmarked no later than the Monday prior to elections.
- 2.260 Outreach sites and extended campus sites will follow absentee ballot procedures for voting.
- 2.270 Further rules and regulations regarding voting can be found in the Election Code.
- 2.300 Election Results
- 2.310 All ballots shall be tallied, manually and/or electronically, and reviewed at the Lewiston LCSC campus in the presence of at least three Election Board Members, including the Chairperson, and an official representative of LCSC selected by the Election Board.
- 2.311 Absentee ballots will be tallied separately from the main Lewiston campus ballots.
- 2.320 Unofficial election results shall be communicated to all candidates via email on Thursday evening following the tallying and review of the votes.
- 2.321 Included in the unofficial election results, the absentee ballots will have their own breakdown indicating the results when posted or published.
- 2.330 All inquiries and/or formal complaints concerning elections shall be presented to the Election Board in writing within five (5) business days following the election.
- 2.331 All requests for hearing must be in physical and/or electronic writing and submitted to the Election Board and ASLCSC Advisor and/or designee.
- 2.340 All election results shall be certified by the Election Board at the first regularly scheduled ASLCSC Council meeting after the deadline for a hearing request or all questions, disputes, and irregularities are resolved.
- 2.341 The certified results presented by the Election Board shall be validated by a simple majority with a quorum.
- 2.342 Should the ASLCSC Council disapprove of the certified election results, the Vice President for Student Affairs shall designate an arbitrator other than the ASLCSC Advisor to settle the dispute. The arbitrator's decision regarding the validation of certified election results shall be binding.
- 2.343 After either the approval of the Council or arbitration by the Office of Student Affairs, certified election results shall be considered validated.

- 2.350 In the case of a tie vote for President, Vice-President, or the final Senate seat, a run-off election shall be called by the Election Board within five (5) business days after the election has been validated.
- 2.351 Run-off elections shall be considered as general elections for the purposes of investigations into violations of the election code, except in the case of deadlines which should be moved up in accordance with the dates of the new election to allow for sufficient time for investigation of complaints.
- 2.360 All disputes and irregularities shall be decided by the Election Board, with serious violations of the election code considered to be criteria for referral to the Office of Student Affairs for violation of LCSC's Student Code of Conduct or to relevant law enforcement authorities for suspected violations of the law.

V. Section C: Recall Elections

- 1.000 Recall elections shall be conducted no later than two (2) months after a petition with sufficient signatures has been received by the ASLCSC Advisor.
- 1.100 A recall election requires a petition signed by ten percent (10%) of the eligible electorate in a manner that allows for verification of each signer's enrollment status.
- 2.000 Recall elections shall take place during a consecutive Tuesday and Wednesday and shall be subject to the oversight of the ASLCSC Advisor.
- 3.000 Unless otherwise directed by the ASLCSC Advisor, recall elections shall be conducted in the same manner as normal elections save for candidate debates, which will take place at the Advisor's discretion.
- 3.100 Any Council member named in a recall election shall have the opportunity to present their defense in a public forum.
- 4.000 Any recall election in which two thirds (2/3) of the votes are cast for the removal of the Council member in question shall constitute a relinquishment of office by that Council member and the vacancy shall be filled according to Article II Section A: Line 12.000 of the ASLCSC Bylaws.

V. Section D: Ballot Initiatives and Referendums

- 1.000 All referendums and initiatives shall be examined by the Ethics Committee and ASLCSC Advisor prior to being placed on the ballot at a date no later than eight (8) weeks prior to the General Election.
- 2.000 Referenda which contain unacceptable language or that would result in a violation of campus policies shall be prevented from being placed on the ballot and returned to its authors for revision.
- 3.000 The Election Board will assign a number to each referenda item to be displayed on the ballot with the organization, individual(s), or student group putting forth the referenda item.
- 4.000 Any legislation being passed via ballot initiative will be presented in its entirety on the ballot during the next General Election.

- Secretary

VI. Section B: Grievance Policy, Censure, and Impeachment

1.000 Definitions

1.100 A “Complainant” is defined as a student of Lewis-Clark State College. If an ASLCSC Council member wishes to file a complaint against another Council member, they shall be considered as officials rather than complainants.

1.110 If an ASLCSC Council official wishes, they may file a complaint as a student.

1.200 The term “Censure” shall be defined as taking away privileges for the purpose of expressing disapproval of the actions of a Council member.

1.210 Elements of censure could be, but are not limited to, formal apology, public referral to the ASLCSC Advisor, removal from a committee(s), impeachment, and stipend modification.

- 1.300 The term “Mediation” shall be defined as an agreement to enter into discussions with the ASLCSC Advisor and the other party to attempt to resolve a dispute to the satisfaction of both parties.
- 1.310 Mediation is defined as non-binding and solely reconciliatory for the purposes of ASLCSC grievance proceedings.
- 1.400 The term “Arbitration” shall be defined as an agreement between two conflicting parties or individuals to enter discussion with a third party for the purpose of ending a dispute. Once both groups have entered arbitration, the decision by the third party is binding unless appealed to the Ethics Committee.
- 1.410 An agreement produced by mediation or arbitration must be in writing, signed by both parties, and filed with the ASLCSC Advisor.
- 1.420 Copies of the complaint shall be distributed to the Ways and Means Committee and the Ethics Committee upon the filing of the complaint with the ASLCSC Council.
- 1.500 The complainant must be notified by the Ethics Committee chairperson within two (2) business days of the complaint being filed. The process of investigation by the Ways and Means Committee and the ruling by the Ethics Committee must not exceed eleven (11) business days. An extension may be filed through the Justice Senator, not to exceed sixteen (16) business days.
- 2.000 Process of Complaint
- 2.100 Unless otherwise prohibited by LCSC campus policies, ASLCSC grievances shall proceed to the Ethics Committee only after an attempt at mediation and/or arbitration has been made. The Ethics Committee shall receive all complaints and file them with the Ways and Means Committee.
- 2.200 If no mutually agreeable resolution can be found through mediation, the dispute may proceed to arbitration.
- 2.210 A grievance must be filed in writing with a letter of grievances specifying the inappropriate conduct of the member(s). These must be filed electronically with the ASLCSC Advisor or their designee before proceeding to arbitration.
- 2.220 The ASLCSC Advisor shall serve as arbitrator unless otherwise designated. The Advisor’s decision is binding unless appealed to the Ethics Committee.
- 2.300 If an appeal is made to the Ethics Committee, it shall receive all complaints and file them with the Ways and Means Committee. The Ways and Means Committee shall review and investigate the complaint and send it back to the Ethics Committee with their recommendation.
- 2.310 If the arbitrator has rendered a decision on the grievance proceeding, a copy of their decision in writing shall be provided to the Ways and Means and the Ethics Committees along with a copy of the original complaint.
- 2.400 The Ethics Committee will then consider the recommendation from the Ways and Means Committee and decide on acquittal, censure, and/or impeachment.
- 2.500 If the respondent is censured, the Ethics Committee must submit the ruling as an agenda item to be introduced to the ASLCSC Council for a vote.
- 2.510 If the ASLCSC President is the subject of the recommendation by the Ethics Committee, the meeting shall be presided over by the ASCLSC Vice-President or a designee selected by the ASLCSC Advisor.
- 2.600 If the ASLCSC Council votes to uphold the ruling from the Ethics Committee with a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the Council with all sitting members present, the respondent may submit an appeal in writing to the ASLCSC Advisor if they believe this ruling is in violation of ASLCSC Bylaws, the ASLCSC Constitution, and/or LCSC policies and procedures.

- 2.700 Upon an appeal, the ASLCSC Advisor or designee will review the case and sentencing for compliance with the ASLCSC Constitution, ASLCSC Bylaws, and LCSC policies & procedures. They will then determine whether to uphold the ruling or issue a corrective ruling to bring it into compliance with said policies.
- 2.710 The ASLCSC Advisor shall issue a decision within five (5) business days of the vote. This decision must be presented to an Executive Session of the ASLCSC Council within two (2) business days of issuance and shall be distributed in writing as soon as possible to the disputing parties. The ASLCSC Advisor's decision is final and may not be appealed through ASLCSC internal proceedings.
- 2.800 Impeachment by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Council with all sitting members present, unless otherwise specified by the ASLCSC Advisor, and shall constitute a relinquishment of office unless the decision is ruled unconstitutional by the ASLCSC Advisor.

VI. Section C: Eligibility for Credits

1.000 Eligibility for Credits

- 1.100 All members of the ASLCSC Council are eligible for academic credit at the discretion of the ASLCSC Advisor. Members are eligible for credit(s) for their respective positions as listed below.
- 1.110 The ASLCSC President shall be eligible to receive four (4) credits per semester in SD-330 Practicum in Student Government.
- 1.120 The ASLCSC Vice-President and Senate Pro-Tempore shall be eligible to receive three (3) credits per semester in SD-330 Practicum in Student Government.
- 1.130 The ASLCSC Senators shall be eligible to receive two (2) credits per semester in SD-130 Practicum in Student Government.
- 1.140 Other students who assist the ASLCSC Council with various assignments and special projects may be eligible for some practicum credit as arranged on a per-case basis with the ASLCSC Advisor.
- 1.150 Student Development credit(s) are elective credit(s), which generally are not used to fulfill core or major requirements. Eight (8) hours maximum of Student Development credit may count toward a Bachelor's degree. Grading is Pass/Fail by decision of the ASLCSC Advisor.
- 1.151 The ASLCSC Advisor will review eligibility every semester.

VI. Section D: Eligibility for Stipend

1.000 Eligibility for Stipend and Stipend Modifications

- 1.100 Members of the ASLCSC Student Council shall be eligible to receive a stipend regardless of their voting record unless subject to stipend modification or stipend reduction. The stipend shall be determined as follows:
- 1.110 Eligible members shall receive a full stipend by serving a complete semester while fulfilling all ASLCSC obligations and meeting all eligibility requirements.
- 1.120 If members resign or are removed from office, they shall receive a prorated portion of their stipend unless further censured.
- 1.130 Members who fill vacant positions shall receive a prorated stipend.
- 1.140 The ASLCSC Pro-Tempore will be responsible for submitting stipend information by the deadline. If the Senate Pro-Tempore is unable to meet the stipend deadline, the responsibility will fall to the ASLCSC President, then to the ASLCSC Advisor.

- 1.141 The ASLCSC President shall, upon completion of each semester, receive a stipend equal to three thousand dollars ($3,000.00).
- 1.142 The ASLCSC Vice-President shall, upon completion of each semester, receive a stipend equal to two thousand dollars ($2,000.00).
- 1.143 The ASLCSC Senate Pro-Tempore, Media Relations Senator, Committees Senator, and Justice Senator shall, upon completion of each semester, receive a stipend equal to one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500.00).
- 1.144 All other ASLCSC Senators, shall upon completion of each semester, receive a stipend equal to one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200.00).
- 1.145 The ASLCSC Advisor or designee will review stipend eligibility every semester.
- 1.146 Stipends shall be split into multiple payments per semester, as decided by the ASLCSC Advisor.
- 1.150 In accordance with censure outlined in line with Article VI Section B, once initiated by the Ways and Means Committee after the grievance process, a stipend modification must be backed by written and signed documentation, with a copy to be given to the ASLCSC Council member whose stipend has been reduced and the original to the ASLCSC Advisor for proper recordkeeping.
- 1.151 In the case of a stipend modification passing, the vote shall be formally recorded on a paper ballot to include each affirming Council members' signatures.
- 1.160 Any ASLCSC Council member receiving a stipend modification may appeal said modifications to the ASLCSC Advisor for a review of constitutionality within five (5) business days. Unless there is a clear violation of LCSC Policy, other applicable policies, labor laws, or the ASLCSC Bylaws and Constitution, the ruling of the Council is final on stipend modifications.
- 1.170 Any stipend modifications shall be kept as confidential as possible until a constitutionality review or six (6) business days have passed.

2.000 Administrative Oversight & Stipend Reductions

- 2.100 As per ASLCSC Bylaws Article II Section A, all members of the ASLCSC Council may be subjected to stipend reduction as deemed necessary by the ASLCSC Advisor and upon the majority vote of the ASLCSC Council.
- 2.110 The ASLCSC Advisor shall request that the item be added to the agenda in the following format: "Stipend Reduction of <Position> <Last name> for the amount of <value of old stipend less the value of the reduced stipend>."
- 2.120 If a Council member believes they have had their stipend reduced unconstitutionally or unfairly, they may file a complaint with LCSC Human Resources Department.
- 2.200 While stipend modifications pursued by the Ethics Committee shall be kept confidential for a period, stipend reductions brought forward by the ASLCSC Advisor shall be subject to public debate to ensure transparency.
- 2.300 Stipend reductions are to be initiated by the ASLCSC Advisor only when internal grievance proceedings and the stipend modification process have both proven insufficient or if ASLCSC Council Members are unwilling to initiate such proceedings in the context of clear evidence of misconduct.
- 2.400 The ASLCSC President may not exercise a veto in stipend reduction or modification proceedings, nor may the ASLCSC Vice President cast a tie breaker vote.
