

LCSC President's Council
September 20, 2019
Host: Student Affairs – RCH 202

PROVOST STINSON

Provost's Council is working on a syllabus template for all courses, updated division evidence lists for promotion to the ranks of Associate Professor and Professor, posting of a syllabus for all courses in the LMS, consistent salary comparators for faculty, and consistent mechanism for reporting faculty workload.

Each Dean is identifying a signature certificate to be implemented in January or August 2020. Per the President's Connecting Learning to Life initiative, signature certificates contain a mix of academic and CTE courses.

Presidential priorities: Enrollment & Retention – Provost's Council is working with Student Affairs on activities for faculty and Chairs that contribute to enrollment and retention increases, and the Adult Learner initiative, specifically 8-wk terms, developing evening/weekend courses, and expanding online opportunities.

VP HANSON

Student Affairs – Meeting Hosts (See Student Affairs Presentation: Appendix A)

Enrollment & Retention:

- 1) Recruitment & Enrollment follows a funnel concept, beginning with Prospects who then become Applicants who then become Students who then Matriculate to Completion. The challenge is determining how to generate more Prospects and Applicants to boost enrollment.*
- 2) Promoting Student Success takes into account the relationship created by three facets of a student's college journey: Academic Integration, Social Integration and Goodness of Fit. To promote Enrollment initiatives, Advising, Adult Learner Program, and Center for Student Leadership have been key to the Student Affairs effort.*

VP KILBURN

The Arboretum committee submitted an application to Tree Campus USA. LCSC and UI are the only Idaho campuses with Arboretum status.

Administrative Services leadership team discussed The Ideal Team Player, by Patrick Lencioni, at their recent retreat. Processes and procedures have been simplified and made more efficient; (e.g., All student financial services will be located in Reid Centennial Hall to better serve the students in one place.) The Purchasing department will move to the Controller's Office this fall.

The Office of Institutional Research & Effectiveness makes it easier to do a survey, by using Qualtrics. Go to the IRE webpage: lcsc.edu/ir and click on the Qualtrics Survey Software link. A survey bank has been created, housing a 'bank' of questions already prepared for those offering a survey.
