Indicators Used

INDICATOR	DESCRIPTION AND HOW IT WAS CALCULATED
Retention	The retention rate is calculated by dividing the total program enrollment from the previous year into the number of those students who either completed their program through graduation or persisted to the 2017-18 academic year.
Job Placement Rate	The job placement is determined from graduate follow-up surveys and includes 2017-18 graduates who are employed and using skills from their program, or who are furthering their education.
Exit Exam	Exit exam administered in final semester compared to all other United States IACBE accredited schools.
