

Remote Learning Spaces

Spring 2022 Semester

Remote Learning Spaces

Remote Learning spaces are intended to provide students with an area where they can engage in virtual learning – e.g., if they are in a class where sometimes they meet with the instructor face-to-face and sometimes participate via Zoom, students need a space (without having to run home or sit in their car) to participate in the virtual (Zoom) sessions.

Buildings/rooms available

- Spalding Hall: 205, 221, 302, 307.

Each space will be identified with a sign that reads: Reserved for Spring Semester/Advising. The sign will also have WiFi connection information. The Library has additional remote learning spaces as well.
