Calculations for Measures

MEASURE	DESCRIPTION AND HOW IT WAS CALCULATED
Graduation Rate	Percentage of declared majors that graduate annually. Number of graduates is divided by number of total students in program the previous year.
Retention Rate	Percentage of declared majors that stayed in their program from the previous year. Number of students who either returned to the same program the next census OR graduated from that same program is divided by number of students enrolled in program the previous census.
Positive Placement Rate	Percentage of graduates that have a positive outcome after graduating including: employed in their program field, pursuing further education (graduate degree), or serving in the military.
