 - FODOS (Foot Operated Door Openers):
 - Painting and stenciling was planned to finish today, so the project is nearly done.

Council Information Reports:

- Update from Pro Tempore:
 - Senator Hill's office hours have been moved to Thursday this week
 - Check the master document of office hours for any other changes/updates
 - No other updates
- Update from Committees Senator:
 - President's Diversity Committee – Senator Schmidt
 - Developing a sub-committee to represent different faculty/staff diversity challenges
 - Continuing letter writing campaigns to support faculty/staff diversity needs
 - There has been some pushback from future students/parents who do not desire diversity training or outreach efforts, so the committee is looking at options to help educate these students/parents about the need for diversity training/outreach programs
 - Center for Student Leadership Committee - Vice President Massey
 - Created a master list of all the upcoming events
 - May be streaming basketball games in the SUB/CSL soon
 - March 19th and April 16th will have COVID-19 testing in the SUB/CSL
 - Looking at redesigning map key for campus, as the buildings do not currently list what departments/groups/programs can be found in each building
 - Current map also does not include all campus buildings (such as the music building)
 - There was a good turn-out for the leadership event with President Pemberton on Monday
- Media Relations Update
 - Pals & Paws event poster will be finalized shortly
