BYLAWS OF THE ASSOCIATED STUDENTS OF LEWIS-CLARK STATE COLLEGE

Article I- Purpose

I. Section A: Statements

- 1.000 The purpose of this document is to outline and guide the elected and appointed members of the ASLCSC Council in the day to day operation of the ASLCSC that are not defined in the Constitution of the ASLCSC.
- 2.000 The ASLCSC shall not discriminate and shall strive to create a campus environment which understands, fosters, and embraces the expression of diversity among students, faculty, administration, and staff. Diversity encompasses differences in age, color, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, national origin, political interests, disability, race, religion, sexual orientation, socio-economic background, or veteran status.
- 3.000 Lewis-Clark State College, ASLCSC and the ASLCSC Council does not exclude from participation in, deny the benefits of, or subject any individual to discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, age, sex, national origin, disability, gender identity, protected veteran status, sexual orientation, political viewpoint or any other status protected under applicable federal, state or local law or college policy. This policy applies to all programs, services, and facilities, including applications, admissions, access to activities and employment.

I. Section B: Constitutional Preamble

- 1.000 We the students of Lewis-Clark State College, in the belief that students have the right and duty to play a significant role in guiding their college, do hereby establish the ASLCSC Constitution to facilitate the following: the articulation of student opinions and interests both in governance of the college and to the community; the encouragement of the greatest level of cooperation and communication between students and their organizations; the assurance of full student access to quality education; the provision for programs and services to benefit students; and the encouragement of the highest level of excellence in education.

Article II- Council Members

II. Section A: ASLCSC Officers

1.000 ASLCSC President

1.100 In the course of their duties, the President shall be expected to:

- 1.110 Call the session of the Council to order at the specified time of the specified day of the academic year and as per II.A.8.190 of the ASLCSC Bylaws.
- 1.120 Prepare the agenda of the order of business for each Council meeting.
 - 1.121 Set and draft a preliminary agenda and distribute it to each member of the ASLCSC Council 24-hours prior to the meeting.
 - 1.122 Place onto the agenda any item submitted to the president's electronic inbox by an ASLCSC Council member before 12:00 Noon of the Monday before a Council session.
 - 1.123 With the consent of the ASLCSC Advisor, prevent any item, that if passed or presented to the Council would be illegal or violate campus policy, or otherwise demonstrably harm the dignity of the student body, college or the Council, from being placed onto the agenda.
 - 1.124 The ASLCSC Advisor must be provided an electronic statement of the rationale for this prevention of scheduling and may override the ASLCSC

President if the agenda item does not harm the dignity of the college or violate the law or a specific campus policy.

- 1.125 Add, remove or reorder agenda items with a simple majority roll call vote once a session has been called to order.
- 1.130 Ensure that minutes and roll are kept of all Council meetings by the ASLCSC Administrative Assistant, ASLCSC Parliamentarian and/or designee.
 - 1.131 The President shall designate a non-ASLCSC Council member to take minutes and roll in the event that the ASLCSC Administrative Assistant is absent.
 - 1.132 The President shall ensure that the Administrative Assistant, Parliamentarian or designee transcribes and distributes the minutes to all appropriate parties within twenty-four (24) hours of the next Council session.
- 1.140 Preserve order and decorum during Council meetings and to decide points of order and parliamentary inquiry with the advice of the ASLCSC Advisor.
- 1.150 Conduct and declare all votes.
- 1.160 Communicate the actions of the ASLCSC Council to the appropriate person(s), bodies, or both.
- 1.170 Serve as ex-officio member of the ASLCSC Ethics Committee, and as a member of the ASLCSC Ways and Means Committee.
- 1.180 Oversee and account for the following ASLCSC accounts: General Reserve and General Operations.
- 1.190 The ASLCSC President shall provide documentation of a minimum of four (4) office hours per week during the academic year and a signed time sheet shall be given to the Senate Pro-Tempore no later than that following Monday.
- 1.200 The President may spend up to five hundred dollars ($500.00) out of the general account once per semester without prior approval from the Council.
 - 1.210 The President may not allocate funds towards agenda items which have went before the Council and were not subsequently affirmed by a majority vote.
- 1.400 The President shall organize an ASLCSC Council retreat and work session(s) to plan and organize the operations of the ASLCSC for the school year.
 - 1.410 This retreat will take place prior to October 1 and will not exceed a total cost of two thousand and seventeen dollars ($2,017).
- 1.500 Prior to assuming office, A Letter of Intent will be filed with the Election Board by the President-elect stating their acceptance of the office for which they have been elected.
 - 1.510 Letters of Intent are due in the ASLCSC Council Office no later than 4:30 PM the Friday before Sine Die.
- 1.600 A signed Statement of Acknowledgement for having read and understood the ASLCSC Code of Ethics and Attendance Policy will be submitted to the ASLCSC Administrative Assistant no later than 4:30 PM the Friday before Sine Die.
- 1.700 The president may veto votes of the ASLCSC Council within 48-hours of a Council Session. Electronic notification of the veto must be provided to all Council members, the ASLCSC Advisor, and the ASLCSC Administrative Assistant or designee at the time a veto is exercised.
 - 1.710 If the veto power is exercised, a rationale must be provided along with the electronic statement of veto.
 - 1.720 There is no veto authority over Ethics Committee rulings, vacancy nominations, Stipend Reductions or Stipend Modifications and the veto power may in no way be exercised during grievance proceedings.

1.730 The ASLCSC Council may overturn a veto upon a two-thirds (2 / 3) majority vote of the Senate with quorum at the next General Session of the Council.

1.800 Failure to fulfil duties delineated in the ASLCSC Bylaws & Constitution will result in a Stipend Reduction as deemed necessary by the ASLCSC Advisor, subject to a majority vote of the Council.

- 2.400 Impeachment of the Council Member by the process detailed in Article VI Section B of the ASLCSC Bylaws constitutes a relinquishment of office.
- 2.500 A recall election decided in favor of removal of a Council Member from Office constitutes a relinquishment of office.

VI. Section B: Grievance Policy, Censure and Impeachment

1.000 Definitions

- 1.100 A “Complainant” is defined as a student of Lewis-Clark State College. If an ASLCSC Council member wishes to file a complaint against another Council member, they shall be considered as officials not complainants.
- 1.110 If an ASLCSC Council official wishes, they may file a complaint as a student
- 1.200 The term “Censure” shall be defined as taking away privileges for the purpose of expressing disapproval toward the actions of a Council member.
- 1.210 Elements of censure could be, but are not limited to: Formal apology, public referral to the ASLCSC Advisor, removal from a committee(s), impeachment and Stipend Modification.
- 1.300 The term “Mediation” shall be defined as an agreement to enter into discussions with the ASLCSC Advisor and the other party to attempt to resolve a dispute to the satisfaction of both parties.
- 1.310 Mediation is defined as non-binding and solely reconciliatory for the purposes of ASLCSC grievance proceedings.
- 1.400 The term “Arbitration” shall be defined as an agreement between two conflicting parties or individuals to enter discussion with a third party for the purpose of ending a dispute. Once both groups have entered arbitration, the decision by the third party is binding unless appealed to the Ethics Committee.
- 1.410 An agreement produced by mediation or arbitration must be in writing, signed by both parties and filed with the ASLCSC Administrative Assistant.
- 1.420 Copies of the complaint shall be distributed to the ASLCSC Ways and Means Committee and the Ethics Committee upon the filing of the complaint with the ASLCSC Council.
- 1.500 The deadline shall be defined as two (2) business days after a complaint is filed with the Ethics Committee, the respondent must be notified by the Ethics Chairperson. The process of investigation by the Ways and Means Committee and the ruling by the Ethics Committee must not exceed eleven (11) business days. An extension may be filed through the Justice Senator, not to exceed sixteen (16) business days.

2.000 Process of Complaint

- 2.100 Unless otherwise prohibited by LCSC campus policies, ASLCSC grievances shall proceed to the Ethics Committee only after an attempt at mediation and/or arbitration has been made. The Ethics Committee shall receive all complaints and file them with the Ways and Means Committee.
- 2.110 If appropriate, an attempt should be made to mediate any disputes between the plaintiff and the respondent, with the ASLCSC Advisor or designee serving as mediator.
- 2.200 If no mutually agreeable resolution can be found through mediation, the dispute may proceed to arbitration.
- 2.210 A grievance must be filed in writing with a letter of grievances listing Inappropriate conduct of the member(s). These must be filed electronically with the ASLCSC Advisor or their designee before proceeding to arbitration.
- 2.220 The ASLCSC Advisor shall serve as arbitrator unless otherwise designated. The Advisor’s decision is binding unless appealed to the Ethics Committee.
- 2.300 If an appeal is made to the Ethics Committee, it shall receive all complaints and file them with the Ways and Means Committee. The Ways and Means Committee shall review and investigate the complaint, and send it with their recommendation back to the Ethics Committee.

2.310 If the arbitrator has rendered a decision on the grievance proceeding, a copy of their decision in writing shall be provided to the Ways and Means and the Ethics Committees, along with a copy of the original complaint.

2.400 The Ways and Means Committee shall investigate the complaint, and send a copy of the investigation and original complaint alongside their recommendation to the Ethics Committee.

2.500 The Ethics Committee will then consider the information from the Ways and Means Committee and determine for acquittal, censure, and/or impeachment.

2.600 If the respondent is censured, then the Ethics Committee must submit this ruling as an agenda item to be introduced to the ASLCSC Council for a vote.

2.610 If the ASLCSC President is the subject of the recommendation by the Ethics Committee, the meeting shall be presided over by the ASCLSC Vice-President or a designee selected by the ASLCSC Advisor.

2.700 If the ASLCSC Council votes to uphold the ruling from the Ethics Committee with a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the Council with all sitting members present, the respondent may submit an appeal in writing to the ASLCSC Advisor if they believe this ruling is in violation of ASLCSC Bylaws, the ASLCSC Constitution, and/or LCSC Policies and Procedures.

2.800 Upon an appeal, the ASLCSC Advisor or designee will review the case and sentencing for compliance with the ASLCSC Constitution, ASLCSC Bylaws and LCSC Policies & Procedures then determine whether to uphold the ASLCSC Council ruling, or the Advisor may issue a corrective ruling to bring this ruling into compliance with said policies listed above.

2.810 The ASLCSC Advisor will rule within five (5) business days of the vote to uphold the Ethics Committee ruling. This decision must be presented to an Executive Session of the ASLCSC Council within two (2) business days of rendering and this communication should be rendered in writing as soon as possible to both disputing parties. The ASLCSC Advisor's decision is final and may not be appealed through ASLCSC internal proceedings.

2.900 Impeachment by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Council with all sitting members present, unless otherwise specified by the ASLCSC Advisor, and shall constitute a relinquishment of office unless the decision is ruled unconstitutional by the ASLCSC Advisor.

VI. Section C: Eligibility for Credits

1.000 Eligibility for Credits

1.100 All members of the ASLCSC Council are eligible for academic credit at the discretion of the ASLCSC Council Advisor. Members are eligible for credit(s) by their respective positions as listed below.

- 1.150 Student Development credit(s) are elective credit(s), which generally are not used to fulfill core or major requirements. Eight (8) hours maximum of Student Development credit may count toward a Bachelor's degree. Grading is Pass/Fail by decision of the ASLCSC Council Advisor.
- 1.151 ASLCSC Administrative Assistance or designee or ASLCSC Advisor will review eligibility every semester

VI. Section D: Eligibility for Stipend

1.000 Eligibility for Stipend & Stipend Modifications

- 1.100 Members of the ASLCSC Student Council shall be eligible to receive a stipend regardless of their voting record unless subject to Stipend Modification or Stipend Reduction. The stipend shall be determined on the following basis:
 - 1.110 Eligible members shall receive a full stipend by serving a complete semester while fulfilling all ASLCSC obligations and meeting all eligibility requirements.
 - 1.120 If members resign or are removed from office, they shall receive a prorated portion of their stipend unless further censured.
 - 1.130 Members who fill vacant positions shall receive a pro-rated stipend.
 - 1.140 The ASLCSC Pro-Tempore will be responsible for turning in stipend information by the deadline. If the Senate Pro-Tempore is unable to meet the stipend deadline, then the responsibility will fall to the ASLCSC President, then to the ASLCSC Advisor.
 - 1.141 The ASLCSC President shall upon completion of each semester receive a stipend equal to three thousand dollars ($3,000.00).
 - 1.142 The ASLCSC Vice-President shall upon completion of each semester receive a stipend equal to two thousand dollars ($2,000.00).
 - 1.143 The ASLCSC Senate Pro-Tempore shall upon completion of each semester receive a stipend equal to one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200.00).
 - 1.144 All other ASLCSC Senators shall upon completion of each semester receive a stipend equal to one thousand dollars ($1,000.00).
 - 1.145 ASLCSC Advisor and Administrative Assistance or designee will review stipend eligibility every semester.
 - 1.146 Stipends will be split into two (2) payments per semester.
 - 1.150 In accordance with censure outlined in line with Article VI Section B, once initiated by the Ways & Means Committee after the grievance process, a Stipend Modification must be backed by written and signed documentation, with a copy to be given to the ASLCSC Council member whose stipend has been reduced, and the original to the ASLCSC Administrative Assistant for proper records.
 - 1.151 In the case of a Stipend Modification passing, the vote shall be formally recorded on a paper ballot to include each affirming Council member's signature.
 - 1.160 Any ASLCSC Council member receiving a Stipend Modification may appeal said modifications to the ASLCSC Advisor for a review of constitutionality within five (5) business days. Unless there is a clear violation of LCSC Policy, other applicable policies, labor laws or the ASLCSC Bylaws and Constitution, the ruling of the Council is final on Stipend Modifications.

1.170 Any Stipend Modifications shall be kept as confidential as possible until a constitutionality review or six (6) business days have passed.

2.000 Administrative Oversight & Stipend Reductions

2.100 As per ASLCSC Bylaws Article II Section A Lines 1.800, 2.200, 3.200, 4.200, 5.200, 6.200 & 7.200, all members of the ASLCSC Council may have stipends subjected to Stipend Reduction as deemed necessary by the ASLCSC Advisor and upon the majority vote of the ASLCSC Council.

2.110 The ASLCSC Advisor shall request that the item be added to the agenda in the following format: “Stipend Reduction of <Position> <Last name> for the amount of <value of old stipend less the value of the reduced stipend>”

2.120 If a Council Member believes they have had their stipend reduced unconstitutionally or unfairly, they may file a complaint with LCSC Human Resource.

2.200 While “Stipend Modifications” pursued by the Ethics Committee shall be kept confidential for a period, “Stipend Reductions” brought forward by the ASLCSC Advisor shall be subject to public debate to ensure transparency.

2.300 Stipend reductions are to be initiated by the ASLCSC Advisor only when internal grievance proceedings and the Stipend Modification process have both proved insufficient, or if ASLCSC Council Members are unwilling to initiate such proceedings in the context of clear evidence of misconduct.

2.400 The ASLCSC President may not exercise a veto in stipend reduction or modification proceedings nor may the ASLCSC Vice-President cast a tie breaker vote.
