ASLCSC Council Meeting Minutes

March 2, 2021

- This week they will be examining student tuition & fees
- Some legislators wanted to create a law that will allow students to opt-in or out of certain tuition fees
- This will likely not become a law, but it will be a discussion in the Idaho Legislature tomorrow
- ASLCSC should be prepared to present why students should pay a fee for student government and why it benefits all students, not just some.
 - Be able to answer why ASLCSC is important to all student experiences
- President's Council (this week)
 - President Mowry will be presenting on how ASLCSC contributes to LCSC Presidential Objectives
 - Dr. Hanson would like each of the representatives to draft statements for future students to encourage retention/enrollment (he will send a template)
- ASLCSC would like to host a virtual graduation event:
 - ASLCSC would need to draft an outline for the virtual event
 - List how prizes will be entered/awarded
- Meeting invite will be forthcoming about gifts to the graduating seniors, from the administration
