How can you make a difference as a hospice volunteer?

- Patient/family companionship, emotional support, assistance with daily needs (grocery shopping, light housekeeping, supply deliveries, etc.), as well as bereavement support to families after the death of their loved one.
- Assisting hospice team in the office with clerical tasks (ex: faxing, creating admission packets, etc.)
- Weekly phone call or in-person visits to patients and their family to “tuck in” for the weekend and ensure they have adequate supplies, medications, and support to get through the weekend.

“Where would hospice have been without volunteers? It would not exist. The Hospice movement began in the '70s because of volunteers. There was no monetary means of support or incentive only the heart and motivation of people who volunteered their time and gave their money to address end of life needs.” -Barbara Karnes, RN
