Out-of-State Tuition Scholarship Application

All undergraduate out-of-state students are automatically considered for out-of-state tuition scholarships and waivers upon completing the LC State admission process by the March 1 Priority Deadline. This scholarship application may be submitted if you missed the Priority Deadline. Scholarships and waivers are offered in varying amounts. Priority consideration is given to students who are tentatively admitted by the March 1 Priority Deadline for Fall enrollment. The number of scholarships and waivers are limited. The different types of available out-of-state scholarships and waivers are listed on page 2. Return this application to Lewis-Clark State College, Financial Aid Office, RCH Rm.110, 500 8th Avenue, Lewiston, Idaho 83501.

Presidential Out-of-State Tuition Scholarship
Promising new non-resident students with at least a high school or transfer cumulative GPA of 3.0 are considered for this merit-based scholarship. First round offers will be selected on merit-based criteria of at least a high school or transfer cumulative of 3.0 GPA or a 20 ACT composite/950 SAT critical reading/verbal and math combined score (RSAT 1030) and be tentatively admitted by the Priority Deadline to receive priority consideration. This scholarship will be renewable for up to four years of consecutive attendance towards a Bachelor’s degree or up to two years of consecutive attendance towards an Associate’s degree based upon meeting the following requirements: maintaining a 3.0 semester GPA, completing at least 12 credits per semester, and registering for classes during advanced registration each semester. Out-of-state tuition scholarships/waivers are applied to out-of-state tuition and fees and are not intended to cover in-state tuition or fees.

Western Undergraduate Exchange (WUE) Waiver
This waiver allows a select number of students to enroll in 2 and 4 year degree programs at 150% of LCSC’s Idaho resident fees. To qualify you must be from one of the following states: Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Commonwealth of the Northern Marianas Islands, Hawaii, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, or Wyoming. First round offers will be selected on merit-based criteria of at least a high school or transfer cumulative of 3.0 GPA or a 20 ACT composite/950 SAT critical reading/verbal and math combined score (RSAT 1030) and be tentatively admitted by the Priority Deadline to receive priority consideration. This scholarship will be renewable for up to four years of consecutive attendance towards a Bachelor’s degree or up to two years of consecutive attendance towards an Associate’s degree based upon meeting the following requirements: maintaining a 3.0 semester GPA, completing at least 12 credits per semester, and registering for classes during advanced registration each semester. Out-of-state tuition scholarships/waivers are applied to out-of-state tuition and fees and are not intended to cover in-state tuition or fees.
