

The Financial Aid Office welcomes you to LC State!

Lewis-Clark State College is excited to welcome you to the Warrior Family!

- Submit your FAFSA at studentaid.gov to apply for Federal Aid
Many students rely on federal financial aid to assist with educational expenses. If you need financial aid, be sure to submit your FAFSA as early as possible to give yourself enough time to plan and prepare.
- View and complete your Financial Aid checklist on WarriorWeb - www.lcsc.edu/warriorweb
This is a multi-step process. Award criteria is available in the award description.
- View your Projected Fees or View or Pay Your Student Account on WarriorWeb
Register first and then view your projected fees (prior to July 15) or your Student Account Statement (after July 15).

Important Reminders

Below are some important reminders to assist you with navigating your financial aid documents and offers.

LCMail - www.lcsc.edu/lcmail

LCMail is for all official business communication with LCSC. This is where offer notifications or requests for information are sent. You are encouraged to check your LCMail often.

Admitted Fully for Financial Aid Purposes

You must be fully admitted for your financial aid to be credited to your student account.

Scholarships

Scholarships have GPA and enrollment criteria to maintain your funding for subsequent semesters. Please review the requirements in the award description.

Register for Classes

Contact The Advising Center at (208) 792-2313 or send an e-mail to tac@lcsc.edu to schedule a time to register for your classes.

Find your new home

Students are able to live on- or off-campus. On-campus housing and assignments are based on the date deposits are received. Visit the Residence Life website page to learn about on-campus and some off-campus options and to complete a housing application.

Attend New Student Orientation

At orientation we want you to be informed and welcomed into the Warrior family! Check out our New Student Orientation website page for more information.

How we can assist you

Federal Aid

We process all offers you may be eligible for as a result of filing your FAFSA. These include Pell Grants, Federal Student Loans and Work-Study.

State Aid

If you applied for the State Opportunity Scholarship or other State of Idaho Scholarships, the Idaho State Board of Education will contact you regarding offers and paperwork.

Work-Study

Work-Study is part-time employment on campus. You can apply for work study by completing a request on the financial aid forms page of the colleges website. Job opportunities are advertised on Handshake.

Scholarships

LC State provides access to a wide variety of institutional scholarships, out-of-state tuition scholarships/waivers and outside funding opportunities. Scholarship opportunities are listed on the Scholarships and Waivers page of the colleges website.
