

Full Admission While Concurrently Enrolled – Agreement

Students who are dually enrolled at another institution can again ADAS status and receive aid

By signing below, the student agrees to provide LCSC a final transcript from the institution at which they are concurrently enrolled. ADAD (full admission) status shall be granted with the understanding that the student shall provide all required admission documents upon successful completion of their coursework at the concurrently attended institution. A hold and notation will be placed on the student's LC record until the final transcript is received.
