

Transfer Articulation Agreement

Between

Walla Walla Community College's (WWCC) Criminal Justice AAS-T Program

And

Lewis-Clark State College's (LC State) Justice Studies Program

Purpose:

The purpose of this agreement is to establish a framework for collaboration between LC State's Justice Studies program and WWCC's Criminal Justice program. This agreement will delineate the transfer process of WWCC students who have completed their AAS-T degree at WWCC into the LC State Justice Studies BA or BS programs.

Students transferring to LC State under this agreement must meet the following requirements:

- Students will have earned an AAS-T, graduating with a cumulative GPA of 2.0.
- Transfer students will need to complete at least 32 LC State credits, 36 upper division credits, and all program requirements to graduate.
- Quarter credits will be converted to semester credits by multiplying the quarter credits by .67.
- A minimum grade of "C-" is required for Gen Ed courses and a 2.0 GPA on a 4.0 grading scale.
- Transferring students are expected to adhere to general academic policies and procedures required for admission to Lewis-Clark State College and to adhere to the all other relevant policies and procedures.
- Transfer students must meet the catalog requirements under which they enter within 7 years.

Both Walla Walla Community College and Lewis-Clark State College agree to keep each other informed of program changes in a timely fashion. Divisions must agree to either offer the courses listed in the agreement, or make appropriate substitutions.

No additional costs will be incurred as a result of this agreement.

This agreement will be reviewed periodically, as needed, by the divisions that house the major/program.

Transfer Terminology

Articulation Agreement: An officially approved agreement between two institutions that outlines specific courses and/or degree requirements a student must satisfy at one institution and the culminating courses required at the transfer institution in order to complete an associate or baccalaureate degree program.

Transfer Agreement: A general statement, policy, or guideline that identifies the type of degree, number and type of credits (core or elective), and course equivalencies that may be transferred from one institution and accepted at another. (Refer to policy 5.201)
